

YOUR INFORMATION IS CONFIDENTIAL

The U.S. Census Bureau is conducting a short survey to determine the characteristics of the unit(s) located at this address. We need this information in order to accurately categorize housing structures.

Information you provide will be kept confidential and used for statistical purposes only, as required by Title 13, United States Code, Section 9. The Census Bureau cannot publish or release information that would identify any individual. The Congress has imposed criminal sanctions (up to five years imprisonment and/or up to $250,000 fine) if any person sworn to uphold the confidentiality of your information violates the provisions of Title 13.

Information you provide will be kept confidential and used for statistical purposes only. The Census Bureau cannot publish or release information that would identify any individual.