

Alien's Change of Address Form/ Board of Immigration Appeals

Who should use this form: Use this form for a change of address if you have filed an appeal or motion with the Board of Immigration Appeals. Note: If you are an attorney representing a person before the Board, do not use this form to indicate your own change of address; use Form EOIR-27 (Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Representative Before the Board).

When to use this form: If you move, the law requires you to file this Change of Address Form with the Clerk's Office of the Board of Immigration Appeals. You must file this form within five (5) working days of a change in your address. Even if you have an attorney or representative, you should file this form with the Board every time you change your address. You should also file this form if you get a new telephone number. see footnote #1

How to use this form:

1. Complete the Change of Address Form below.
2. Send a copy of this form to the Office of the Chief Counsel for the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) (Immigration and Customs Enforcement-ICE), and complete and sign the "Proof of Service" below to show you did this.
3. Send this form to the Board of Immigration Appeals. Follow the mailing instructions on the back of this form.

Footnote #1

This paragraph has been revised. It now reads as follows:

When to use this form: If you move or change your phone number, the law requires you to file this Change of Address Form with the Clerk's Office of the Board of Immigration Appeals. You must file this form within five (5) working days of a change in your address or phone number. Even if you have an attorney or representative, you should file this form with the Board every time you change your address. You will only receive official correspondence at the address which you provide on this form. If you fail to keep your address information up to date, the Board of Immigration Appeals may treat that failure as an abandonment of your appeal or motion.
