

Citizenship and Immigration Services Ombudsman - Form DHS-7001

Introduction

The Office of Citizenship and Immigration Services Ombudsman is an independent office within the Department of Homeland Security and is not part of U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). The Ombudsman's Office is here to help individuals and employers who have not been able to resolve a problem directly with USCIS.

Before you Submit a Case Problem to the Citizenship and Immigration Services Ombudsman

USCIS may be able to provide the answer to many frequently asked questions such as:

- What type of form do I file?
- Where do I file a particular form?
- How do I notify USCIS of a change of address?
- How do I find out about processing times at various USCIS Service Centers or Field Offices?
- How do I receive an update on my case status?

Before asking the Ombudsman's Office for help with your application or petition, you should first try to resolve the problem with USCIS by using the following methods:

- Obtain information about your case status at My Case Status at www.uscis.gov.
- Contact the National Customer Service Center (NCSC) for assistance at 1-800-375-5283.
- Make an appointment to speak directly with a USCIS Immigration Services Officer at a local office through the InfoPass system. Appointments may be made online at infopass.uscis.gov.

While there is no time limit to complete this form, this form cannot be saved and completed at a later time. Your session will time out after 20 minutes of inactivity.

--NOTICE--

Please note that while the Ombudsman's Office provides impartial and independent recommendations to USCIS on how to resolve problems, the Ombudsman's Office does not have the statutory authority to make or change USCIS decisions.

Privacy Act Requirements

All information submitted to the Office of the Citizenship and Immigration Services Ombudsman is collected and protected under the provisions of the Privacy Act. By submitting this information to the Ombudsman's Office, you are consenting to our review of your information and allowing us to contact USCIS on your behalf.
