    Written comments and suggestions from the public and affected=20 agencies concerning the collection of information should address one or=20 more of the following four points:
    (1) Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is=20 necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency,=20 including whether the information will have practical utility;
    (2) Evaluate the accuracy of the agencies estimate of the burden of=20
the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the=20 methodology and assumptions used;
    (3) Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to=20
be collected; and
    (4) Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those=20 who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated,=20 electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or=20 other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic=20 submission of responses.
