

Pilot Test Customer Satisfaction survey of Broadcasting of Commission Adjudicatory Proceedings Over the Internet

The U. S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission is currently pilot testing (through July 1, 2009) the broadcasting of Commission Adjudicatory Proceedings over the Internet as a means of improving communications with the public. During this pilot, you will be able to view selected adjudicatory hearings as they take place. The NRC would appreciate your assistance in answering the following questions. This information will assist NRC in determining the value of providing this service in the future. Thank you for your cooperation.
