

Caution: DRAFT—NOT FOR FILING

This is an early release draft of an IRS tax form, instructions, or publication, which the IRS is providing for your information as a courtesy. Do not file draft forms. Also, do not rely on draft instructions and publications for filing. We generally do not release drafts of forms until we believe we have incorporated all changes. However, in some cases unexpected issues arise, or legislation is passed, necessitating a change to a draft form we have posted on IRS.gov. Also, forms generally are subject to OMB approval before they are officially released. Drafts of instructions and publications are usually subject to at least some changes before being officially released.

All early releases of draft forms, instructions, and publications are available at www.irs.gov/draftforms. All information about forms, instructions, and publications is accessible from www.irs.gov/formspubs.

If you have any comments on this draft, you can submit them to us on our IRS.gov page titled Comment on Forms and Publications, where you may make comments anonymously if you wish. You can also email us at taxforms@irs.gov. Please include the form or publication number in the subject. We cannot respond to all comments due to the high volume we receive, but we will carefully consider each suggestion. Please note that we may not be able to consider many suggestions until the subsequent revision of the product.

Definitions

Mass submitter. As set forth in Rev. Proc. 2011-49, 2011-44 I.R.B. 608, any entity that submits applications on behalf of at least 30 unaffiliated sponsors or practitioners each of which is sponsoring, on a word-for-word identical basis, the same basic plan document and one or more of the adoption agreements associated with that basic plan document or in the case of VS plans, one or more of the same lead specimen plans. For a mass submitter of a Master or Prototype (M&P) plan, once the mass submitter has submitted applications on behalf of 30 unaffiliated sponsors for any basic plan document, it will be treated as a mass submitter for all the other basic plan documents and associated adoption agreements for which it requests opinion letters, regardless of the number of identical adopters of such other plans. A mass submitter of a Volume Submitter (VS) plan will be treated as such for each specimen plan for which the 30 unaffiliated practitioner requirement is separately met.

Notwithstanding the above, for an M&P plan, any entity that received a favorable Tax Reform Act of 1986 opinion letter for a plan as an M&P mass submitter under Rev. Proc. 89-9, 1989-1 C.B. 780, will continue to be treated as a mass submitter if it submits applications on behalf of at least 10 sponsors (regardless of affiliation) each of which is sponsoring, on a word-for-word identical basis, the same basic plan document and one or more of the adoption agreements associated with that basic plan document. Once the mass submitter has submitted applications on behalf of 10 sponsors for any basic plan document, it will be treated as a mass submitter for all the other basic plan documents and associated adoption agreements for which it requests opinion letters, regardless of the number of identical adopters of such other plans.

Affiliation is determined under sections 414(b) and (c). Additionally, the following will be considered to be affiliated: any law, accounting, consulting firm, etc. with its partners, members, associates, etc.

For purposes of determining whether 30 (or 10, if applicable) unaffiliated sponsors or practitioners sponsor on a word-for-word identical basis the same basic plan document or the same specimen plan, the mass submitter is treated as an unaffiliated sponsor or practitioner.

Sponsor. Any person that has an established place of business in the United States where it is accessible during every business day and represents to the IRS that it has at least 30 employer-clients each of which is reasonably expected to adopt the sponsor's basic plan document and one or more of the adoption agreements associated with that basic plan document. Once a person represents to the IRS that at least 30 employers are reasonably expected to adopt its basic plan document, it will be treated as a sponsor for all the basic plan documents and associated adoption agreements for which it requests opinion letters, regardless of the number of employers that are expected to adopt such other plans.

Notwithstanding the above, any person that has an established place of business in the United States where it is accessible during every business day and is a word-for-word identical adopter or minor modifier adopter of an M&P plan of a mass submitter will be treated as a sponsor for such plan, regardless of the number of employers that are expected to adopt such plan.

Practitioner. Any person that has an established place of business in the United States where it is accessible during every business day and represents to the IRS that it has at least 30 employer-clients each of which is reasonably expected to adopt a plan that is substantially similar to the VS practitioner's specimen plan.

The required number of employer-clients is reduced to 10 for a money purchase pension specimen plan in the case of a VS practitioner that has specimen plans for two or more separate categories of plans (profit sharing, money purchase, target benefit, defined benefit), one of which is a money purchase plan, and the 30 employer-clients requirement has been satisfied for the other specimen plan.

A VS practitioner may submit any number of specimen plans for advisory letters provided that the 30 employer-clients requirement (or 10, if applicable) is separately satisfied for each specimen plan. For this purpose, where an adoption format is used, each adoption agreement is treated as one specimen plan. Notwithstanding the above, any person that has an established place of business in the United States where it is accessible during every business day may sponsor a specimen plan as a word-for-word identical adopter of a specimen plan of a VS mass submitter, regardless of the number of employers that are expected to adopt the plan.

Specific Instructions

Line 2a. Enter the name and address of the applicant. If the Post Office does not deliver mail to the street address and the applicant has a P.O. box number, show the box number instead of the street address.

Line 3a. The person to contact must be an employee or an authorized representative of the mass submitter. If the person to be contacted is other than an employee of the applicant, please enclose an authorized power of attorney. See Disclosure requested by taxpayer earlier.

Line 4a. Enter the two-digit basic plan document number you have assigned to the specimen plan or basic plan document that accompanies (if applicable) the adoption agreement for which you are requesting approval. All basic or specimen plan documents from one sponsor or practitioner which are the same (word-for-word) should use the same two-digit number on all applications. The first basic plan document submitted should be numbered as "01," the second as "02," etc. The first specimen plan document submitted should be numbered as "01," the second as "02," etc.

Line 4b. Enter the three-digit number you have assigned to the adoption agreement, if applicable, for which this application is submitted. In the case of an M&P submission, each different adoption agreement designed to accompany a single basic plan document should be given a different three-digit number beginning with "001." For example, if the first basic plan document of a sponsor has four separate adoption agreements, they should be numbered "001" through "004" and the sponsor should submit four separate Forms 4461. Adoption agreements submitted with the second or any subsequent basic plan documents (that are not word-for-word identical to a previously submitted basic plan document) should be similarly numbered beginning with "001."

Line 5. In the case of an M&P sponsor adopting a word-for-word identical plan (including a flexible plan) to a plan of the M&P mass submitter, or a VS practitioner adopting a word-for-word identical plan of a VS mass submitter, a copy of the plan does not have to be submitted. For the sponsor of an M&P plan of a mass submitter, if the plan is a minor modification, the M&P mass submitter should submit Form 4461-B, typed as a "placeholder." When the lead plan receives its email of preliminary approval, submit a copy of the mass submitter plan with the minor modifications underlined in red, or otherwise highlighted, as well as a statement indicating the location and effect of each change.

Line 7. If this application is based on an application submitted by a mass submitter and simultaneously filed with the mass submitter's application or filed before the information under line 7 is available, enter in the brackets designated for the file folder number the basic plan document number and the adoption agreement number (if applicable) of the mass submitter's plan on which this plan is based. Do not complete the rest of line 7.
