

Survey of CSP Stakeholders in the Gulf of Mexico
Invitation and Reminder Emails

Invitation Email Text:

Subject: Coastal Storms Program Survey

Dear Colleague,

NOAA's Coastal Services Center in Charleston, SC is conducting a survey to stakeholder satisfaction with the Coastal Storms Program (CSP) in the Gulf of Mexico. You have been selected for this survey because of your interest in activities, products and services provided by the CSP.

Please participate in this 10 minute survey about the program's progress toward its objectives, your satisfaction with how the program functions, the usefulness of the products it generates, and how the program benefits compare to its costs.
