

Line Listing (Record Keeping)

Each medical provider reporting source should keep a line listing of individuals diagnosed with or thought to have ALS along with information on whether or not the case was reported and if not, the reason. Contract surveillance staff will be in frequent contact with physician's offices and will be available to assist with this activity.