Also, if you conceal or fail to disclose a reporting event with an intent to obtain benefits fraudulently either in a greater amount than is due or when no payment is authorized, you may be FINED, IMPRISONED, or both as provided in section 208 of the Social Security Act.

Privacy Act Statement

Collection and Use of Personal Information

Sections 202(d) and 203 (f) of the Social Security Act as amended [42 U.S.C. 402(d) and 403(f)] and Title 20 CFR 404.415, 404.434, 404.435 (b) (2), 404.367, 404.368, and 422.135, authorize us to collect this information. The information you provide will help us determine your entitlement to benefits. The information you provide is voluntary. However, your failure to provide all or part of the requested information could prevent us from making an accurate and timely decision concerning your entitlement to benefits.

We rarely use the information you provide on this form for any purpose other than for the reasons explained above. However, we may use it for the administration and integrity of Social Security programs. We may also disclose information to another person or to another agency in accordance with approved routine uses, which include but are not limited to the following: 1. To enable a third party or an agency to assist Social Security in establishing rights to Social Security benefits and/or coverage; 2. To comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information from Social Security records (e.g., to the Government Accountability Office, General Services Administration, National Archives Records Administration, and the Department of Veterans Affairs); 3. To make determinations for eligibility in similar health and income maintenance programs at the Federal, State, and local level; and 4. To facilitate statistical research, audit, or investigative activities necessary to assure the integrity of Social Security programs.

We may also use the information you provide in computer matching programs. Matching programs compare our records with records kept by other Federal, State, or local government agencies. Information from these matching agencies can be used to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federally-funded or administered benefit programs and for repayment of payments or delinquent debts under these programs.

A complete list of routine uses for this information is available in our System of Records Notice entitled, Claim Folders Systems, 60-0089. The notice, additional information regarding this form, and information regarding our system and programs, are available on-line at www.socialsecurity.gov or at any local Social Security office.

PAPERWORK REDUCTION ACT

Paperwork Reduction Act Statement - This information collection meets the requirements of 44 U.S.C. § 3507, as amended by section 2 of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. You do not need to answer these questions unless we display a valid Office of Management and Budget control number. We estimate that it will take about 6 minutes to read the instructions, gather the facts, and answer the questions. Send only comments relating to our time estimate above to: SSA, 6401 Security Blvd, Baltimore, MD 21235-6401.

Use this form ONLY when there is a change to report to Social Security.
