CONDITIONS OF ISSUANCE AND TEMPORARY IMPORT PROCEDURES

1. This license is issued under the conditions cited in 22 CFR 120-130, including provisos as applicable to the specific license authorization.
2. Approval of this license shall not be construed as implying U.S. Government approval or commitment to authorize future temporary imports or exports of any defense article on the U.S. Munitions List (USML) or any U.S. Government commitment with regard to any proposed manufacturing license, technical assistance or distribution agreement that may result from a license authorization.
3. If a license is issued for temporary import of hardware, for return to the country of origin or in-transit to another foreign country, it does not authorize the temporary import or export (permanent or temporary) from the United States of any technical data, unless covered by an exemption.
4. The issuance of this license does not release the applicant, or anyone acting on its behalf, from complying with other requirement of U.S. law and regulations.
5. No transfer of title is authorized to occur during the period of temporary import for purposes of overhaul/repair or modification/upgrade into the United States and access to the defense article by foreign persons shall only be in accordance with and for the purpose identified on the license.
6. Licenses for the temporary import of an aircraft or vessel: The applicant when using this license agrees that during its temporary import (1) the aircraft/vessel will remain demilitarized unless otherwise authorized or will have only those capabilities that are the subject of the license; and (2) the applicant will maintain the same certification or registry of entry. Also, the aircraft/vessel during its temporary import cannot be used in any activities (e.g., military activities and transport of USML articles) that are not authorized in this license or by a separate license or exemption under appropriate USG regulations.
7. The prior written approval of the Department of State, Directorate of Defense Trade Controls, must be obtained before USML articles exported from the United States using a license or other approval, to include an ITAR exemption, may be resold, transferred, diverted, transshipped, reshipped, re-exported to, or used in any country, or by any end user or for any end use, other than that described on the license or other approval.
8. The defense articles authorized for temporary import may only be shipped temporarily into the United States using a Port where a U.S. Customs and Border Protection officer is available. Shipments of defense articles licensed in accordance with the ITAR may not be shipped on a vessel, aircraft, or other means of conveyance that is owned or operated by, or leased to or from, any of the proscribed countries or areas. Prior to any temporary import and subsequent export, the exporter must present the original of the license to a U.S. Customs and Border Protection officer for verification, endorsement and retention and declare the export or entry in accordance with the ITAR and U.S. Customs and Border Protection procedures using the Automated Export System (AES). Any article temporarily imported must be exported to the authorized foreign destination prior to the expiration of the license. Otherwise, the applicant must submit a renewal license at least 60 days prior to the expiration date to renew the authorization.

RETURN OF LICENSE

This license must be returned in accordance with 22 CFR 123 to PM/DDTC, SA-1, 12th Floor, Directorate of Defense Trade Controls, Bureau of Political-Military Affairs, U.S. Department of State, Washington, D.C. 20522-0112 when: (1) the total value authorized has been shipped; (2) the applicant states that there will be no further shipments; (3) the date of expiration is reached; or (4) when requested by the Directorate of Defense Trade Controls.
