U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement

RULES OF BEHAVIOR AGREEMENT

OMB No. 1653-0046
Exp. 02/29/2012

You are about to access a Department of Homeland Security (DHS) computer system. This DHS computer system and the data therein are property of the U.S. Government and provided for official U.S. Government information and use. Access to this system is restricted to authorized users only. Surety companies and their authorized agents are the only authorized users of this system. Authorized user may only use this eBONDS for the sole purpose of posting surety bonds and not for any other purpose or business process. Unauthorized access, use, or modification of this computer system or of the data contained herein, or in transit to/from this system, may constitute a violation of Section 1030 of Title 18 of the U.S. Code and other federal or state criminal laws. Anyone who accesses a Federal computer system without authorization or exceeds his or her access authority, or obtains, alters, damages, destroys, or discloses information, or prevents authorized use of information on the computer system, may be subject to administrative penalties, fines or imprisonment.

This DHS computer system and any related equipment is subject to monitoring for administrative oversight, law enforcement, criminal investigative purposes, inquiries into alleged wrongdoing or misuse, and to ensure proper performance of applicable security features and procedures. As part of this monitoring, DHS may acquire, access, retain, intercept, capture, retrieve, record, read, inspect, analyze, audit, copy and disclose any information processed, transmitted, received, communicated, and stored within the computer system. If monitoring reveals possible misuse or criminal activity, notice of such may be provided to appropriate supervisory personnel and law enforcement officials. DHS may conduct these activities in any manner without further notice.

DHS reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to restrict, suspend or terminate your access to all or any part of the computer system and any time for any reason without prior notice or liability. DHS may change, suspend or discontinue all or any aspect of the computer system at any time, including the availability of any feature, database, or content (including the Interactive Areas), without prior notice or liability.

Accordingly, there can be no expectation of privacy in the course of your use of this computer system. The use of a password or any other security measure does not establish an expectation of privacy; you consent to the terms set forth in this notice. There is no expectation of privacy in any media, peripherals or other devices placed in or connected to the computer system. You may not process classified national security information on this computer system.

DHS reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to change, modify, add, or delete portions of these Terms of Use at any time without further notice.

By signing this agreement below or by using this system, you consent to the terms set forth in this notice and those detailed in the eBONDS Access Agreement.
