7. INSTRUCTIONS:
 Monies payable from the U.S. under a USDA or CCC contract may be assigned to a bank, trust company, federal lending agency, or other recognized lending institution. However, if such contract was made with a corporation whose stock is wholly owned by the federal government, such contract may be assigned to a prior lienholder, or, with the prior approval of the contracting officer, to an individual.

Further, the rights of the assignee to the proceeds of a USDA or CCC contract are subject to, inter alia, defenses arising under the contract which the government could have asserted against the assignor absent the assignment.

Unless expressly permitted by the contract, that any assignment shall cover all amounts payable under the contract and not already paid and shall not be made to more than one party, except that any assignment may be made to one party as agent or trustee for two or more parties participating in such financing. If the contract was made with CCC, it shall not be subject to further assignment.

Since such assignment shall be recognized only if and when the assignee thereof files written notice of the assignment, these instructions shall be followed carefully in order to avoid delay, inconvenience, and possible impairment of the validity of the assignment.

- A. Upon execution of an assignment, the assignee shall prepare, sign and forward the original signed copy of this notice, together with the original signed copy of the instrument of Assignment to the addressee. Photocopies of each executed form shall be sent to the surety or sureties upon the bond or bonds (if any) in connection with the contract.
- B. The addressee shall acknowledge receipt of this notice, if in order, in the space provided and return photocopies of each acknowledged form to the assignee.
- C. It is the policy of CCC and USDA to notify the assignee of the amount of any indebtedness of the contractor which is to be collected by CCC or USDA by offset from payments due under the contract. The assignee will generally receive such offset notice when receipted copies of the Notice of Assignment are returned to him or her. Whenever the assignee is given an offset notice by CCC or USDA, the amounts payable under the contract will be the amounts remaining to be paid after offset.
- D. CCC or USDA may offset any amounts for which the assignor is indebted to the United States for taxes with respect to which a notice of lien was filed, or a Notice of Levy was served, in accordance with the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C. 6323; 6331), prior to acknowledgement by CCC or USDA of receipt of the notice of assignment.
- E. Such assignment shall remain in force until addressee receives written advice from the assignee to release this assignment.

NOTE: Payment due or to become due under the contract identified above will be made to the undersigned assignee.
