

In accordance with the clearance terms for this collection, the DOL is submitting a nonsubstantive change request to revise the question on sexual identity for the employee survey in order to be more consistent with a HHS-developed sexual identity question.