Executed at (Witness) (First Lender) Executed at 20 (Witness) (Second Lender)

INSTRUCTIONS and REQUIREMENTS

- 1. The permittee will execute this Escrow Waiver in the presence of a witness. The permittee shall forward the executed and witnessed Escrow Waiver to the lender.
- 2. The lender will verify the permittee's executed Escrow Waiver and shall forward it to the Authorized Officer who shall confirm it and file it in the permittee's Term Grazing Permit folder. The folder shall be tagged in such a way as to conspicuously indicate that the contents include a confirmed Escrow Waiver.
- 3. The Authorized Officer shall send copies of the confirmed Escrow Waiver to the lender, the permittee, and appropriate Forest Service personnel. Incomplete forms shall not be confirmed or accepted for filing by the Authorized Officer and shall be returned to the permittee or lender, whichever is appropriate.
- 4. In order to confirm a second Escrow Waiver, the first Escrow Waiver of Term Grazing Permit Privileges form must be released by the First Lender and the replacement Escrow Waiver must be verified by both the First and Second Lenders. Only the Farm Services Agency (FSA) can be confirmed as the Second Lender.
- 5. When the mortgage has been satisfied or the lender no longer desires to rely on the Escrow Waiver, the lender will execute the release portion of the Escrow Waiver and send it to the Authorized Officer, who will then notify appropriate Forest Service personnel that the lender has released the Escrow Waiver and the permittee's term grazing permit privileges have been restored.

OMB No. 0596-0003 (Exp. 07/2012)

6. The Release from Escrow Waiver shall be filed in the permittee's Term Grazing Permit folder and the tag removed from the folder that previously indicated a confirmed Escrow Waiver was filed within.
