Commonly Asked Questions

What is the U.S. Bureau of Justice Statistics Survey of Chicagoland Neighborhoods?

The U.S. Bureau of Justice (BJS) Survey of Chicagoland Neighborhoods is a survey of households in the Chicago area to obtain information about Chicago communities.

Who is the sponsor of this study?

The survey is sponsored by the Bureau of Justice Statistics (BJS), U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ). The survey is conducted under the authority of Title 42, United States Code, Section 3732. To learn more about BJS, you can visit them on the web at www.ojp.usdoj.gov/bjs.

How long will it take to complete this survey?

We anticipate that most households will be able to complete the mailed survey in about 5-6 minutes. Some households may be contacted later for a more detailed survey.

Am I required to complete this survey?

Participation is voluntary and there are no penalties for refusing to answer. However, your household was randomly selected for this scientific sample survey, and you cannot be replaced with another household. Your cooperation is extremely important to help ensure the completeness and accuracy of this much needed information.

Who will use this information?

Results from this survey (and similar surveys conducted by The U.S. Department of Justice) will be used to better understand the needs of neighborhood residents.

Who can I call with questions?

If you would like further information, you can contact Westat at 1-888-380-0050.

How was my household chosen for this study?

Households were selected at random from all Chicago-area residential addresses. By selecting households randomly, we will be able to create scientific estimates about households in the Chicago area. It's important to participate, so that we have an accurate picture of the Chicagoland community.

How do I know you'll keep my information confidential?

The information you provide will be used for statistical purposes only and may not be disclosed, or used, in identifiable form for any other purpose as required by law (Title 42, U.S. Code, Sections 3789g). Your responses will be combined with those of others to produce statistical summaries about crime and safety. After the study is completed, identifying information - your address and phone number - are destroyed.
