Sections 404.101 and 404.109(a)(c) of the Social Security Act, as amended, authorize us to collect this information. We will use your self-employment income information for the current taxable year to determine your eligibility for Social Security benefits.

Furnishing us the information is voluntary. However, failing to provide us with all or part of the requested information may prevent us from making an accurate and timely decision on your claim, which may result in the loss of payments.

We rarely use the information you supply for any purposes other than for determining problems in Social Security programs. However, we may use it for the administration and integrity of Social Security programs. We may also disclose information to another person or to another agency in accordance with approved routine uses, which include, but are not limited to the following:

1. To comply with Federal laws regulating the release of information from Social Security records (e.g., to the Government Accountability Office and the Department of Veterans' Affairs);
2. To make determinations for eligibility in similar health and income maintenance programs at the Federal, State and local level; and,
3. To facilitate statistical research, audit, and investigatory activities necessary to assure the integrity and improvement of Social Security programs.

We may also use the information you provide in computer matching programs. Matching programs compare our records with records kept by other Federal, State, or local government agencies. We use the information from these programs to establish or verify a person's eligibility for federally-funded or administered benefit programs and for repayment, incorrect payments or delinquent debts under these programs.

A complete use of routine uses for this information is available in our Privacy Act Systems of Records Notices, 60-0059, Earnings Recording and Self-Employment Income System.
