My Case Status

Sign-up for Case Updates

USCIS Customers (applicants or petitioners) and Representatives (such as lawyers, charitable groups, or corporations) who require regular access to status information about multiple cases can create an account to more conveniently access this information. The services provided to both account types are identical, except Representatives may also enter their own internal office tracking number with each receipt number.

In addition, USCIS Customers and Representatives can choose to receive automatic case status updates, which will be sent via e-mail. A new pilot program provides the additional option to receive a text message notification that a case status update has occurred, which will be sent to a United States mobile phone number. USCIS Customers and Representatives that select the option to receive the text message notification acknowledge that Standard Messaging Rates or other charges related to these notifications may apply.

OMB Control Number 1615-0080; Expires June 31, 2012

Case Status Online allows individuals or organizations to create an online account to submit a request for status information on their immigration benefit requests to USCIS. Public reporting burden for this form is estimated to be 4.5 minutes (0.075 hours) per response, which includes the time necessary to review instructions, gather all necessary data, complete the form and submit to USCIS. If you have comments regarding the burden estimate, or any other part of this information collection, you may submit comments to USCIS. Your response is voluntary. Send comments to USCIS, Regulatory Coordination Division, Office of Policy and Strategy, 20 Massachusetts Ave NW., Washington, DC 20529-2020.

Do not mail completed forms to this address. Mail your completed form to the address provided in the form instructions.

To view the status of a case, please enter the corresponding application receipt number. The 13-character application receipt number can be found on application notices you have received from the USCIS. It begins with three letters such as (EAC, WAC, LIN, or SRC). Dashes ("-") should be omitted when entering a receipt number. However, all other characters, including asterisks ("*"), can be included if listed on your notice as part of the receipt number.

Listed above are the possible steps an application or petition may go through during processing. Not every application or petition will spend time in each of these steps. Once you enter your receipt number you will see the steps that will always be required for that particular application or petition. The step in the process where your case is currently located will be highlighted. Other steps will appear if your case requires that particular step.

Para ver el estado de un caso, por favor entre el número de recibo correspondiente a la solicitud. El número de recibo de solicitud consta de 13 caracteres y puede encontrarse en las notificaciones que USCIS le ha enviado. Dicho número comienza con tres letras, tales como (EAC, WAC, LIN, ó SRC). Cuando usted entre un número de recibo, no debe entrar los guiones ("-"). Sin embargo, todos los otros caracteres, incluso los asteriscos ("*"), pueden incluirse si aparecen en su notificación como parte del número de recibo.

Más arriba se enumeran los posibles pasos por los que tiene que pasar una solicitud o petición durante su procesamiento. No todas las solicitudes o peticiones tienen que pasar por cada uno de los pasos. Una vez que usted escriba su número de recibo, podrá ver los pasos que debe seguir siempre una solicitud o petición como la que usted ha presentado. El paso en el que se encuentra su caso actualmente como parte del proceso aparecerá subrayado. Aparecerán también otros pasos si su caso debe pasar por esos pasos específicos.

Usted puede recibir notificaciones automáticas de las actualizaciones de casos, las cuales se enviarán por correo electrónico y mensaje de texto al crear una cuenta en línea.

Privacy and Legal Disclaimers

Thank you for visiting our Website and reviewing our privacy and security notice and legal disclaimers. We remind you that if you link to a site outside of the Department of Homeland Security, you are subject to the policies of the new site.

Privacy

Here is how we handle information about your visit to our Website:

Information Collected and Stored Automatically

If you visit our site to read or download information, we collect and store the following information about your visit:

- The name of the Internet domain (for example, "xcompany.com" if you use a private Internet access account, or "yourschool.edu" if you are connecting from a university's domain) and the IP address (a number that is automatically assigned to your computer when you are using the Internet) from which you access our site;
- The type of browser and operating system used to access our site;
- The date and time you access our site;
- The Internet address of the Website from which you linked directly to our site; and
- The pages you visit and the information you request.

This information is primarily collected for statistical analysis and technical improvements to the site. This government computer system uses software programs to create summary statistics, which may be used for such purposes as assessing what information is of most and least interest, determining technical design specifications, and identifying system performance or problem areas. In certain circumstances, however, we may take additional steps to identify you based on this information and we may share this information, including your identity, with other agencies.

If You Send Us Personal Information

If you choose to provide us with personal information, such as by sending an e-mail or by filling out a form and submitting it through our Website, we will use that information to respond to your message or to fulfill the stated purpose of the communication. Remember that e-mail is not necessarily secure against interception. If you communication is sensitive or includes personal information you may prefer to send it by postal mail instead.

We may share the information you give us with another government agency if your inquiry relates to that agency. In other limited circumstances, such as responses to requests from Congress and private individuals, we may be required by law to disclose information you submit. Before you submit personal information, such as on an online form, you may be given more specific guidance as to how your personal information may be used.

Electronically submitted information is maintained and destroyed according to the principles of the Federal Records Act and the regulations and records schedules of the National Archives and Records Administration, and in some cases may be covered by the Privacy Act and subject to the Freedom of Information Act.

Cookies

"Cookies" are small bits of text that are either used for the duration of a session ("session cookies"), or saved on a user's hard drive in order to identify that user, or information about that user, the next time the user logs on to a Website ("persistent cookies"). This Website does not use persistent cookies, but does use session cookies to provide streamlined navigation throughout the site. These session cookies are deleted from the server soon after your session ends and are not collected or saved.

Security

For site security purposes and to ensure that this service remains available to all users, this Government computer system employs software programs to monitor network traffic to identify unauthorized attempts to upload or change information, or otherwise cause damage. Anyone using this system expressly consents to such monitoring and is advised that if such monitoring reveals evidence of possible abuse or criminal activity, such evidence may be provided to appropriate law enforcement officials. Unauthorized attempts to upload or change information on this server are strictly prohibited and may be punishable by law, including the Computer Fraud and Abuse Act of 1986 and the National Information Infrastructure Protection Act of 1996.

To protect your privacy and the privacy of others, do not include your full name, phone numbers, email addresses, social security number, case numbers or any other sensitive Personally Identifiable Information (PII) in your comments or responses.

DHS may share information posted on the Beacon Blog if there is a demonstrated need to know, and will only post information after it has been appropriately approved and vetted by DHS/USCIS OCOMM.

Privacy Policy for Case Status Online

The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) collects your case receipt number to provide you with status updates and estimated processing times for your pending immigration benefit application or petition. You are not required to provide this information; however, USCIS may not be able to provide status updates on your pending case without it.

DHS personnel, contractors or other agents may use or have disclosure of your information to assist in updating your status on a pending application or petition.

DHS may also share information with law enforcement or other government agencies if there is a demonstrated need to know; for example, a potential or actual threat to national security. Specific examples of when DHS might share your information can be found in the Privacy section of DHS' website under System of Records Notices, "Benefits Information System," September 29, 2008.
