

Supporting Statement for OMB Form 83-I

Information Referral

1. CIRCUMSTANCES NECESSITATING COLLECTION OF INFORMATION

Currently, individuals wishing to report alleged tax violations may contact a Toll-Free telephone operated by the Customer Service Function of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). Here, an IRS employee would transcribe information provided by the caller to an internal form. Persons calling who do not have all of the required information to complete the form are advised to re-contact the Service after obtaining the necessary facts. Completed forms are subject to review and forwarded to appropriate areas as dictated by the instructions in the Internal Revenue Manual (IRM). Experience has shown only a small number of these referrals result in any further action by the Service.

Recent and pending Funding constraints have it necessary for Customer Service to consider several program areas where reductions might be made. The objective was to reduce costs and preserve essential tax related services to our customer base. After study by the Service, it has been determined we can obtain essentially the same information regarding alleged tax violations from the public without the need to provide live service. This will allow the Service to re-deploy highly skilled employees presently performing this duty to other tax program areas.

We plan to provide callers with a form that may be completed at the convenience of the caller. The form will be designed capture the essential information needed by IRS for an initial evaluation of the report. Upon return, the Service will conduct the same back-end processing required under present IRM guidelines.

Submission of the information to be included on the form is entirely voluntary on the part of the caller and is not a requirement of the Tax Code.

2 USE OF DATA

Under the present procedures, persons contact the IRS to voluntarily provide data regarding alleged violations tax law. An employee of the IRS verbally asks the caller to give information as outlined in the IRM needed to complete the internal form. The proposed form captures the same type and amount of information required by the current IRM instructions. Any additional information burden is minimized. The data that is and will be required is the minimum required to identify a potential violator and conduct an initial review for potential follow-up action. This includes:

- a. Name, address, Identification Number (Individual and/or Business), occupation, marital status, and date of birth. This information is required to identify the potential violator in our database(s).
- b. Alleged violation. Determines appropriate area for any follow-up action.
- c. Unreported Income and Tax Years. Same as above. Amount and of tax years involved determine where referral is routed.
- d. Remarks. For caller to describe the alleged violation, how the information was obtained.
- e. Name, address, and contact telephone number of the caller. Needed if additional facts or information is required to evaluate the report.

3 USE OF IMPROVED INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY TO REDUCE BURDEN

We have no immediate plans to offer electronic filing due to the low volume of respondents compared to the cost of electronic enabling.
