Employee Agreement

I acknowledge that I have been granted access to confidential data, to facilitate the performance of my duties for the case studies of grantees of the National Professional Development (NPDP) Program. This Agreement confirms that I recognize and understand that my use of these data is restricted to the fulfillment of my duties on this study and that it is my responsibility to safeguard and maintain the confidentiality of these data. Safeguarding consists of following all protections specified in the study's Information Security Plan. Maintaining confidentiality means not releasing or disclosing the data to any unauthorized individuals.

I have received a copy of the Case Studies of Grantees of the National Professional Development Program Data Use and Confidentiality Procedures, Information Security Plan, and Institutional Review Board (IRB) submission. I certify that I have reviewed these documents and agree to abide by the standards set forth therein for the duration of my employment on this study. I understand that my e-mail and computer usage may be monitored by the company to ensure compliance with these standards.

I am aware that any violations of the Data Use and Confidentiality Procedures may subject me to disciplinary action, up to and including discharge from employment.
