

Electronic Poll Books: Usage in Elections

This collection of information contains Paperwork Reduction Act (PRA) requirements approved by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB). Notwithstanding any other provisions of the law, no person is required to respond to, nor shall any person be subject to a penalty for failure to comply with, a collection of information subject to the requirements of the PRA unless that collection of information displays a currently valid OMB control number. Public reporting burden for this collection is estimated to be 60 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to the National Institute of Standards and Technology, Attn: Shaneé Dawkins, PhD, MS. 8940, 100 Bureau Dr., Gaithersburg, MD 20899.

NIST is exploring the use of electronic poll books in U.S. elections. I am writing to invite you to be a subject-matter expert on elections as we gather information on the use of electronic poll books in your state. As a subject-matter expert on elections, you will be asked to provide more information on several topics related to electronic poll books. Your conversation with the researcher is expected to take 30 – 60 minutes.

- Please tell me about electronic poll book usage in your state, for example, what is the current status of electronic poll book use in your state?
- Please describe any state laws and regulations for electronic poll books, if they exist, for example, how do electronic poll books fit into current legislation?
- Please tell me how you determined, or will determine, which electronic poll books to purchase, for example, what influenced your decision to purchase electronic poll books?
- Please describe your Election Day procedures for electronic poll books, for example, what is the process for electronic poll book use in polling places?
- Please describe any electronic poll book training done in your state, for example, to what extent are poll workers involved?

Please let me know if you are interested in providing more information on electronic poll books.
