#1536: FO Telephone and N8NN versions of RCS: Pending Account – activation code expired

Social Security | Registration and Customer Support (RCS) Text Size  | Accessibility Help

User Search

SSN: or Username: User is: on phone in person

 The customer has not activated this account. The previously issued code has expired.

The customer's previously issued code has expired. A new code may be issued by visiting a local Social Security office.

You searched for SSN: XXXXXXXXXX

This account is pending activation; however, the code has expired.

Customer Internet Screens
Ask the customer for the title of the screen he or she is having trouble with. Look below for the link that matches that title.

Login - extra security account

To Register in Person

In order to register for an account, the customer must be at least 18 years of age and have:

- a valid email address, and
- an SSN, and
- a U.S. mailing address.

If the customer wants to register for online services, he or she may bring a government-issued proof of identity to a Field Office. Acceptable documents are:

- state-issued driver's license or identification card, or
- U.S. passport or passport card, or
- military identification card, or
- government employee identification card.

Change and Justification: Add new error message to the RCS Intranet Telephone and In-Person User Search screen to: tell the RCS user (or Social Security employee) that the customer has not activated his or her online account and now the activation code has expired. The RCS user must issue the customer a new activation code. Previously, we had no way to identify and deal with incomplete account creation scenarios.

Add new error message to the Internet version of the registration proces to: address both our banned and non-banned customers per the Ban Regulations, 42 CFR 422.901 – 422.907, published in the Federal Register on 9/2/11 at 76 FR 54700. For non-banned customers, we display language that tells them they can call or visit a Social Security field office.

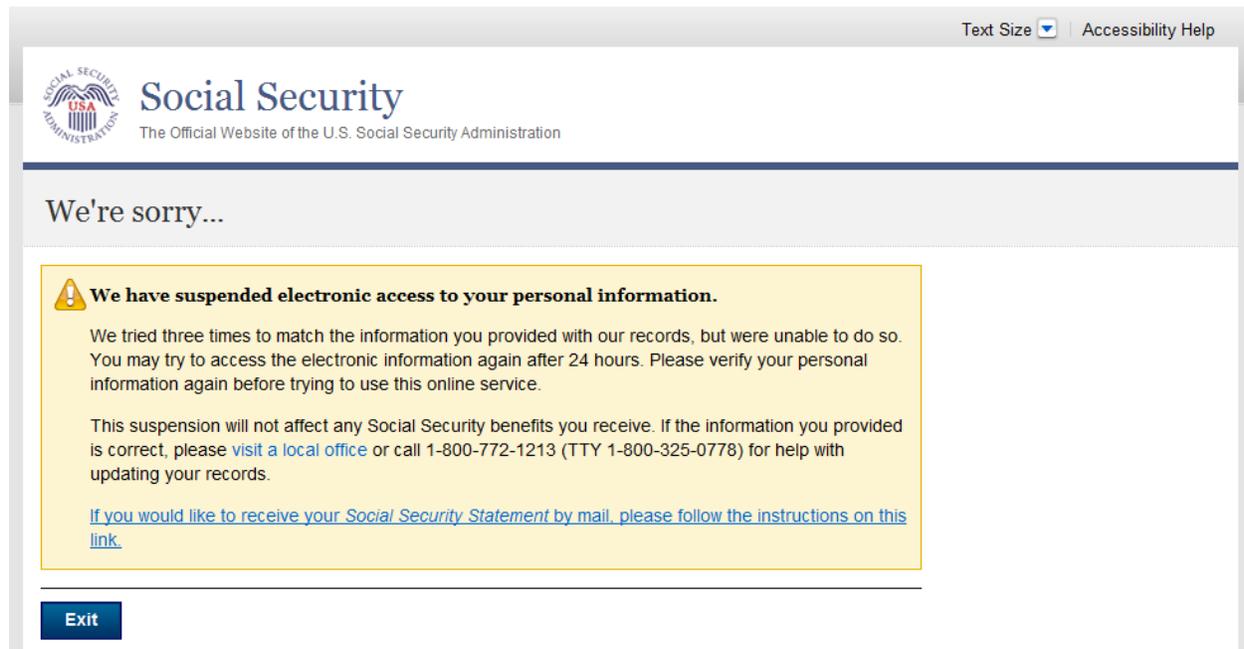

#1540: Spin code exclusion, failed out of wallet, insufficient out of wallet questions returned, EDS fraud alert for user banned from field office

The screenshot shows the top of the Social Security Administration website. In the top right corner, there are links for "Text Size" and "Accessibility Help". The Social Security Administration logo is on the left, and the text "Social Security" is prominently displayed in the center, with "The Official Website of the U.S. Social Security Administration" underneath. Below the header, a grey bar contains the text "We're sorry...". A yellow warning box contains the following text: "We cannot create an account for the Social Security number you entered." followed by "Please call 1-800-772-1213 (TTY 1-800-325-0778) for more help." and a blue hyperlink: "If you would like to receive your Social Security Statement by mail, please follow the instructions on this link." Below the warning box is a blue "Exit" button.

Change and Justification: Add new error message to the Internet version of the registration proces to: address both our banned and non-banned customers per the Ban Regulations, 42 CFR 422.901 – 422.907, published in the Federal Register on 9/2/11 at 76 FR 54700. If a customer has been banned from visiting a Social Security field office in person, then we do not want to direct him or her to a field office for assistance when we display error messages. A banned customer may only call or write Social Security. For banned customers, we display language that tells them they may call Social Security.

#1541: Identity Failure Lockout for user who is not banned from field office

Terms of Service

- I understand that this computer program contains U.S. Government information.
- I consent to the monitoring of my use of this program to ensure its appropriate use.
- I understand that it is a federal crime to:
 - Give false or misleading statements to obtain information in Social Security records; or
 - Deceive the Social Security Administration of an individual's identity.
- I understand that unauthorized use of, or access to, this computer program may subject me to criminal or civil penalties, or both.
- I understand that Social Security may stop me from using these services online if it finds or suspects misuse.

I agree to the Terms of Service.

Change and Justification: We changed the language on our Internet attestation Terms of Service (TOS) screen. This is the language the customer sees when he or she signs in to his or her online account. OIG expressed concern that some US Attorneys' Offices were refusing to take on SSA fraud cases perpetrated through the agency's web applications due to insufficient TOS language. We formed a special workgroup to come up with language that would address these concerns. Our eGovernance Steering Committee approved the final revised TOS language.
