ASSISTED LIVING SCREEN

ASSISTED LIVING PROGRAM -

Close Window

- Any group residential program that is not licensed as a nursing home and that provides personal care and support services to people who need help with the activities of daily living (ADL)* as a result of physical or cognitive disability.

- Assisted living communities are designed for individuals who cannot function in an independent living environment but do not need nursing care on a daily basis. Many assisted living facilities also have professional nurses and other health care professionals on staff or available on call should a resident require special care.

- These communities go by a variety of names: adult homes, personal care homes, retirement residences, and sheltered housing. Local jurisdictions vary in their definitions and requirements. Assisted living communities are often affiliated with independent living communities or nursing care facilities offering residents a continuum of care for changing needs.

*ACTIVITIES OF DAILY LIVING (ADL)-

ADL's are considered to be everyday activities, such as walking, getting in and out of bed, dressing, bathing, eating, and using the bathroom.
