

Privacy Act Statement

5 U.S.C. 552(a)(e)(3)

The information you provide through your responses to Fors Marsh will assist the study sponsor, the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (“CFPB”), in determining your eligibility in participating one-on-one interviews about the notices given to consumers who take out payday loans, installment loans, or loans over the Internet.

The CFPB will not obtain or access any directly identifying information from Fors Marsh about study participants. The agency will only obtain, and access, de-identified results and aggregated analyses of those results.

Information collected on behalf of the Bureau by Fors Marsh will be treated in accordance with the System of Records Notice (“SORN”), CFPB.022, <https://www.federalregister.gov/articles/2012/11/14/2012-27582/privacy-act-of-1974-as-amended>. This information will not be disclosed as outlined in the Routine Uses for the SORN. Direct identifying information will only be used by Fors Marsh to facilitate the study and will be kept private except as required by law.

This collection of information is authorized by Pub. L. No. 111-203, Title X, Sections 1013 and 1022, codified at 12 U.S.C. §§ 5493 and 5512.

Participation in this exercise is voluntary, you are not required to participate or share any identifying information with Fors March, including name, email address, mobile number, home number, work number or any other number, age, race, origin, gender, marital status, level of education, current employment status, income range, occupation, and you may withdraw participation at any time. However, if you do not include the requested information, you may not participate in the interview.
