INFORMATION ABOUT THE HATCH ACT

The Hatch Act prohibits federal, District of Columbia, some state and local and nonprofit organization employees from engaging in certain types of political activities. See 5 U.S.C. §§ 7321- 7326 and 5 U.S.C. §§ 1501-1508.

Federal Employees are generally prohibited from:

1. Using their official authority or influence for the purpose of interfering with or affecting the result of an election.
2. Soliciting, accepting, or receiving political contributions (with some exceptions).
3. Running for nomination or as candidates for partisan political office.
4. Soliciting or discouraging the participation in political activity of any person who has business before their employing agency.
5. Engaging in political activity while on duty, in any room or building occupied in the discharge of official duties, while wearing a uniform or official insignia, or while using a vehicle owned or leased by the United States government.

State and Local Employees are prohibited from*:

1. Using their official authority or influence for the purpose of interfering with or affecting the result of an election or a nomination for office.
2. Coercing, attempting to coerce, commanding, or advising a State or local officer or employee to pay, lend, or contribute anything of value to a party, committee, organization, agency, or person for political purposes.
3. Being a candidate for partisan political office.

* Employees of some private, nonprofit organizations are subject to the same restrictions on political activity that apply to covered state and local employees.

PART 4: CONSENT TO CERTAIN DISCLOSURES OF INFORMATION

OSC asks everyone who files a complaint alleging a possible prohibited political activity (violation of the Hatch Act) to select one of three Consent Statements shown below. IF YOU DO NOT SELECT ONE OF THE THREE CONSENT STATEMENTS BELOW, OSC WILL ASSUME THAT YOU HAVE SELECTED CONSENT STATEMENT 1. Please: (a) select and sign (or check, if filing electronically) one of the Consent Statements below; and (b) keep a copy of the Consent Statement you select (as well as a copy of all documents that you send to OSC) for your own records.

If you initially select a Consent Statement that restricts OSC's use of information, you may later select a less restrictive Consent Statement. If your selection of Consent Statement 2 or 3 prevents OSC from being able to conduct an investigation, an OSC representative will contact you, explain the circumstances, and provide you with an opportunity to select a less restrictive Consent Statement.

You should be aware that the Privacy Act allows information in OSC case files to be used or disclosed for certain purposes, regardless of which Consent Statement you sign. See 5 U.S.C. § 552a(b). Information about certain circumstances under which OSC can use or disclose information under the Privacy Act appears on the next page.

(Please sign one)

Consent Statement 1

I consent to OSC's communication with the pertinent individuals involved in my complaint. I agree to allow OSC to disclose my identity as the complainant, and information from or about me, if OSC decides that such disclosure is needed to investigate the allegation(s) in my complaint. I understand that regardless of the Consent Statement I choose, OSC may disclose information from my complaint file when permitted by the Privacy Act (including circumstances summarized in Part 6, below).

Consent Statement 2

I consent to OSC's communication with the pertinent individuals involved in my complaint, but I do not agree to allow OSC to disclose my identity as the complainant. I agree to allow OSC to disclose only information from or about me, without disclosing my name or other identifying information, if OSC decides that such disclosure is needed to investigate the allegation(s) in my complaint. I understand that in some circumstances OSC could not maintain my anonymity while communicating with the pertinent individuals. In such cases, I understand that this request for confidentiality might prevent OSC from taking further action on my complaint. I also understand that regardless of the Consent Statement I choose, OSC may disclose information from my complaint file when permitted by the Privacy Act (including circumstances summarized in Part 6, below).

Date Signed

Consent Statement 3

I do not consent to OSC's communication with the pertinent individuals involved in my complaint. I understand that if OSC decides that it cannot investigate the allegation(s) in my complaint without communicating with these individuals, my lack of consent will probably prevent OSC from taking further action on the complaint. I understand that regardless of the Consent Statement I choose, OSC may disclose information from my complaint file when permitted by the Privacy Act (including circumstances summarized in Part 6, below).

PART 6: PRIVACY ACT / PAPERWORK REDUCTION ACT STATEMENTS

Privacy Act and Routine Uses. Limited disclosure of information from OSC files is needed to fulfill OSC's investigative, prosecutorial, and related responsibilities. OSC has described 27 routine uses ("a" through "aa") for information in its files in the Federal Register (F.R.), at 77 F.R. 24242 (April 23, 2012). A copy of the routine uses is available from OSC upon request. A summary of the routine uses appears below. If OSC officials believe that disclosure may be appropriate in a situation not covered by one of OSC's routine uses, or one of the 11 other exceptions to the Privacy Act's general prohibition on disclosure, OSC will seek written authorization from the complainant or whistleblower permitting the disclosure.

OSC may disclose information from its files in the following circumstances to:

- a. disclose that an allegation of prohibited personnel practices or other prohibited activity has been filed;
- b. disclose information to the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) as needed for inquiries involving civil service laws, rules or regulations, or to obtain an advisory opinion;
- c. disclose information about allegations or complaints of discrimination to entities concerned with enforcement of antidiscrimination laws;
- d. the Merit Systems Protection Board (MSPB) or the President, when seeking disciplinary action;
- e. the involved agency, MSPB, OPM, or the President when OSC has reason to believe that a prohibited personnel practice has occurred, exists, or is to be taken;
- f. disclose information to Congress in OSC's annual report;
- g. disclose information to third parties as needed to conduct an investigation; resolve an allegation; or to give notice of the status or outcome of an investigation; and to an agency, Office of Inspector General (OIG), complainant (whistleblower), the President, Congressional Committees, or the National Security Advisor regarding disclosures under 5 U.S.C. 1213; or to give notice of the status or outcome of a review;
- h. disclose information as needed to obtain information about hiring or retention of an employee; issuance of a security clearance; classification of a job; conduct of a security or suitability investigation; award of a contract; or issuance of a license, grant, or other benefit;
- i. the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for certain legislative coordination and clearance purposes;
- j. provide information from an individual's record to a congressional office acting pursuant to the individual's request;
- k. furnish information to the National Archives and Records Administration for records management purposes;
- l. produce summary statistics and workforce or other studies;
- m. provide information to the Department of Justice (DOJ) as needed for certain litigation purposes;
- n. provide information to courts or adjudicative bodies as needed for certain litigation purposes;
- o. disclose information to the MSPB as needed in special studies authorized by law;
- p. coordinate with an agency's OIG or comparable entity, to facilitate the coordination and conduct of investigations and review of allegations, including notification of the disposition of matters referred to OSC by that office;
- q. news media or the public in certain circumstances (except when the Special Counsel determines that disclosure in a particular case would be an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy);

- r. the Department of Labor and others as needed to implement the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994 (USERRA), as amended, including demonstration projects, and the Veterans' Employment Opportunities Act of 1998, or disclose information to the Department of Defense, Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve for mediation;
- s. disclose records, when OSC has agreed to represent a USERRA complainant, from the corresponding investigative file to the relevant litigation file, and from the litigation file to the complainant;
- t. disclose information to agency contractors, or other non-OSC employees performing or working on a contract, service, or other activity as needed to accomplish an agency function;
- u. make lists and reports available to the public pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 1219;
- v. disclose information as needed to appropriate agencies, entities, and persons in the event of a confirmed or suspected data breach to respond to and prevent, minimize, or remedy harm;
- w. disclose information to appropriate federal entities with subject matter expertise as needed to obtain advice on any authorities, programs, or functions associated with records in this system;
- x. disclose information to appropriate law enforcement entities where OSC becomes aware of a violation or potential violation of civil or criminal law or regulation; and to OPM and OMB pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 1214;
- y. disclose information, when necessary, to the Integrity Committee established under the Inspector General Act, and under section 7(b) of Public Law 110-409;
- z. disclose information to the DOJ and/or the Federal Bureau of Investigation, as required, for inclusion in the National Instant Criminal Background Check System; and
- aa. disclose information to another Federal entity, as needed, under the Freedom of Information Act or the Privacy Act.

Purposes, Burdens, and Other Information. An agency may not conduct or sponsor a collection of information, and persons may not be required to respond to a collection of information, unless it: (a) has been approved by OMB; and (b) displays a currently valid OMB control number. The information in this form is collected pursuant to OSC's legal responsibility to investigate: (a) allegations of prohibited political activity (5 U.S.C. § 1216). The information will be reviewed by OSC to determine whether the facts establish its jurisdiction over the subject of the complaint, and whether further investigation and disciplinary action is warranted. The reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to be an average of 30 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering the data needed, and completing and reviewing the form. Please send any comments about this burden estimate, and suggestions for reducing the burden, to the Office of Special Counsel, Legal Counsel and Policy Division, 1730 M Street, N.W. (Suite 218), Washington, DC 20036-4505.
