

Census Jobs!

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE • Economics and Statistics Administration • U.S. CENSUS BUREAU

The Census Bureau is an Equal Opportunity Employer

WORK AS A CENSUS FIELD REPRESENTATIVE

The U.S. Census Bureau has employment opportunities for survey field representatives and related positions to collect survey data for the federal government. Census field representatives may work varied schedules depending on assignments and survey requirements.

You will be assigned households or persons in your local area to contact and interview during a predetermined period of the month. You will use a Census Bureau provided laptop computer to record answers from the interview. We will provide you training on how to operate the laptop computer and how to record survey answers. A Census Bureau team leader will accompany you on your first assignment to provide on-the-job training.

The information you collect is confidential and must not be disclosed to anyone who has not sworn to protect Census Bureau information.

TRAINING

You will be required to complete a 10-30 hour self-study before you attend your initial classroom training. Initial classroom training may last 3-5 days and may require travel to another city on government per diem. After your classroom training you may receive on-the-job training, be required to complete self-studies, and attend refresher-training sessions periodically. You will be paid for time spent in training, and for time and mileage required to attend training.

WHEN YOU WILL WORK

Your hours of work each month will vary depending on the number of households you are assigned to interview. Although you will typically have the flexibility to determine the specific hours that you will be working, the work will usually require evening and weekend work to meet deadlines. You must be willing to work the hours necessary to complete an assignment on schedule. Many positions will require that you be willing to travel to a variety of neighborhoods and to interview diverse groups. You need to be available to work when the people you need to interview are home, but generally no later than 9:00 p.m. Interviewing may require driving in the evenings and during bad weather.

You will be paid for hours worked including time and mileage in travel and for training. You also will be reimbursed for authorized out of pocket expenses, for telephone and other travel costs on official business; such as parking fees, bus fares, etc. The method of payment is bi-weekly direct deposit into your financial institution account.

HOW CAN YOU QUALIFY FOR CENSUS SURVEY

- 1. Noncitizens will only be considered for census jobs if qualified citizens are not available, particularly in areas where bilingual ability is a necessary qualification. You must present documentation of employment eligibility. The types of acceptable documentation are listed on the reverse side of this form.
- 2. You must be 18 years of age or older.
- 3. You must have a valid Social Security number.
- Applicants must take and pass a written basic skills test, after which a mock interview and structured job interview will be administered.
- 5. Most census jobs require the employee to conduct face-to-face interviews with respondents. This involves visiting respondents in a variety of residence types, asking questions and recording responses.
- 6. Male applicants born after December 31, 1959, must be registered with the Selective Service System.
- 7. The Census Bureau performs criminal background checks and reviews criminal records (including fingerprinting) as part of assessing applicants past conduct and suitability for employment.
- 8. You will not engage in any political activity while on duty.
- All non-census employment (including law and regulatory enforcement jobs) will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis for compatibility with Census Bureau employment.
- 10. Applicants must be available to work days, evenings, and weekends. Since most people are not home during the day, you will have to visit some homes during the evening and on the weekends.

Provided here are some sample questions to help better prepare you for the test. If you pass the written test, you will then participate in two interview exercises.
