From: Edge Research
Date: August XX, 2015
Subject: Tell Us About Your SURF Experience!

Dear SURF Alumni,

Hello! I hope your summer is going well! The National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) is reaching out to SURF Alumni to conduct an independent assessment of the SURF program. The assessment will inform funding and program-related decisions.

NIST chose Camper Consulting and Edge Research, independent consulting firms, to conduct the assessment in order to assure the privacy and confidentiality of your remarks. We are interested in including the points of view of as many Alumni as possible. This is where you come in!

NIST relies on your participation to make this assessment a success! Recognizing the unique perspective you can offer, NIST would greatly appreciate your participation in a brief 5 to 10 minute online survey.

For completing the survey, you will have the option to be entered into a sweepstakes for one of fifteen $20 Amazon gift cards.

You will be directed to the survey by clicking on the link below:
