Re: Timely Progress Review - Request for Response

Our records show that the beneficiaries named on the attached Progress Review Form currently have a ticket "Assigned" or in "In-use SVR" status with you. After every 12 months that the beneficiary's ticket is in one of these statuses, we ask about his or her progress toward a vocational goal such as completing certain education or getting and keeping a job. We refer to this as a "Timely Progress Review." We are requesting your help in assessing whether these individuals are making the expected progress because they did not respond to our request.

What You Should Do

Please complete the attached Progress Review Form and return it to us according to the instructions on the form within 30 days of the date of this letter. We will notify you via a report concerning whether these individuals met the Timely Progress Review requirements. The requirements for each 12-month Timely Progress Review period are shown later in this letter.

Why Conduct Timely Progress Reviews

As long as the beneficiary is making the expected progress toward his or her vocational goal, Social Security will not conduct a medical review to see if he or she is still disabled. We use the Timely Progress Review to decide if a beneficiary is making enough progress with work and earnings, education, or technical training to continue to be excused from a medical review.

The Timely Progress Review requirements enclosed with this letter show how much progress is expected in each 12-month period. If a beneficiary is not making the expected progress, he or she will no longer be excused from a medical review; however, the beneficiary may continue working with your EN or State VR agency toward his or her vocational goals.

Ticket to Work Progress Review Form for DUNS: XXXXXXXXXX

03/21/2012

For each SSN shown in column one below, please look at the date of the individual's progress review period shown in column two. Then please fill out any other column(s) on that row that applies to the individual. Only indicate work or educational credits you are aware the beneficiary achieved during his or her progress review period. Write "Yes" under the column that matches the level of progress your client met during their 12-month progress review period, except certain columns require that you insert the number of educational credits completed or the dollar amount the beneficiary earned per month and the number of months worked. If there are no SSNs reported for a specific 12-month Progress Review Period, skip the review period.

For example, always write "yes" in column three when the individual has met the earnings requirement. When an individual has fully met any single requirement for the period, you need only indicate it in the appropriate box and the other boxes do not need to be completed. If the beneficiary had a combination of earnings and education for the period, please fill in the last three columns of the chart only to show the dollar amount earned per month and the number of months worked during the 12-month period. In addition, write the number of credits completed in the last column.

Leaving all columns blank for an SSN will indicate that you do not have information showing that the individual met the Progress Review requirements.

Please sign, date, and return this form to Ticket to Work by fax at 703-893-4020 or by mail using our address on the letter attached to this form. Please respond within 30 days of the date on this form.

While furnishing the information on this form is voluntary, failure to provide all or part of the information on this form to the Social Security Administration will prevent review of your progress in the Ticket to Work Program. Although responses to these questions are voluntary, you will not be able to pass the progress review and remain excused from a medical review unless you answer the questions on this form.

Although the information you give us is almost never used for any other purpose than stated above, there is a possibility that for the administration of the Social Security programs or for the administration of programs requiring coordination with the Social Security Administration, information may be disclosed to another person or to another government agency as follows: (1) to another Federal, State, or local government agency for determining eligibility for a government benefit or program; (2) to a Congressional office requesting information on behalf of the program participant; (3) to a third party for the performance of research and statistical activities; and (4) to the Department of Justice for use in representing the Federal Government.

The information you provide may also be used without your consent in automated matching programs. These matching programs are computer comparisons of Social Security Administration records with records kept by other Federal agencies or State and local government agencies. Information from these matching programs can be used to establish or verify a person's eligibility for federally funded or administered benefit programs and for repayment of payments or delinquent debts under these programs.

We may also use the information you give us when we match records by computer. Matching programs compare our records with those of other Federal, State or local government agencies. Many agencies may use matching programs to find or prove that a person qualifies for benefits paid by the Federal government. The law allows us to do this even if you do not agree to it.

Explanations about these and other reasons why information you provide us may be used or given out are available in Social Security offices. If you want to learn more about this, contact any Social Security office.
