

The body of our letter to financial institutions is as follows:

The beneficiary shown below has their Department of Veteran Affairs (VA) benefits directly deposited into your institution. The VA does not have their current mailing address which is required to administer their benefits.

Section 1113 of the Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978 (12 U.S.C. 3414) authorizes VA to obtain the current mailing address of VA beneficiaries whose benefits are deposited by direct deposit.

Please provide the current mailing address for the following person:

Beneficiary name:

Account number:

Current address (VA):

CERTIFICATION: This information is necessary to administer veterans benefits programs and will be used solely for this purpose. This information cannot be secured by a reasonable search of records and information maintained by the VA.