

If you are reading this screen, you need to enable macros to view the

If using Excel 2003:

1. Set the macro security setting to Medium (Recommended) or Low. To Macro->Security.
2. If the macro security setting is set to Medium, select Enable Macros w

If using Excel 2007 and 2010:

1. Set the macro security setting to Disable macros with notifications ( the macro security setting, click the Office Button and select Excel Opt Macro Settings.
2. If the macro security setting is set to Disable macros with notificati content.

Note: This screen will flash momentarily when you save or finalize this workbook.

Prescription Drug Formulary

Prescription Drug Formulary workbook.

To change the macro security setting, select Tools->

then opening the workbook.

Recommended) or Enable all macros. To change option -> Trust Center -> Trust Center Settings -> options, click the Option button and select Enable this