Target Arrest/Incident

INSTRUCTIONS

This section is to record the Target Arrest/Incident that facilitated the client's entry into the Jail Diversion Program. Please record the information following the instructions below.

- (1) Record the 'Target Arrest/Incident' date in the Target Arrest table below.
- (2) Determine the most serious charge. Most serious charge is determined by the charge that carries the most severe or maximum penalties in your state. Please describe the charge.
- (3) Use the codes on page 10 to determine the specific charge code and circle the charge level.

If there is no charge (pre-booking diversion) please characterize the incident as the charge that most likely would have been pursued if the individual had been formally arrested.*

- (4) Indicate if the target arrest/incident includes a drug or alcohol related charge, if known.
- (5) Indicate if the arrest includes a domestic violence related charge if known. That is, a charge against person where the victim is a current or former intimate, family member or relative.
- (6) If there is jail time associated with this charge, please enter the dates of jail admission and jail release or total jail days served, and indicate the reason for the incarceration.
