NOTE: REMEMBER TO TELL US WHEN YOU MOVE, EVEN IF YOUR MAILING ADDRESS FOR CHECKS HAS NOT CHANGED.

WHAT TO REPORT

The law Sections 202, 203, and 205 of the Social Security Act, as amended (42 United States Code 402, 403, and 405.) required you to promptly report certain changes in your circumstances which could affect your continuing eligibility to benefits or your benefit amount. The kinds of changes you must report to Social Security are listed on the reverse side of this form. The booklet, "Your Social Security Rights and Responsibilities," tells more about reporting changes. If you do not have this booklet or if you want help in making a report, get in touch with any Social Security office. The people there will be glad to help you.

FAILURE TO REPORT

If you do not report changes in your circumstances, you may not be paid some, or all, of the benefits due you. Or, you may be overpaid, in which case, you will have to pay back any benefits you received that were not due you.

If you hide or do not report a change with the intent to fraudulently get more benefits or benefits not due you, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both per Section 208 of the Social Security Act.

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

~~Collection and Use of Personal Information~~

~~Sections 202, 203, and 205 of the Social Security Act, as amended (42 U.S.C. 402, 403, and 405) authorizes us to collect the information. We will use the information you provide to assist us in determining your continuing eligibility to benefits or your benefit amount. The information you provide on this form is voluntary. However, failure to provide all or part of the requested information could prevent us from making an accurate and timely decision on your claim or could result in the loss of benefits.~~

~~We rarely use the information you provide on this form for any purpose other than for the reasons explained above. However, we may use it for the administration and integrity of Social Security programs. We may also disclose information to another person or to another agency in accordance with approved routine uses, which include but are not limited to the following: 1. To enable a third party or an agency to assist Social Security in establishing rights to Social Security benefits and/or coverage; 2. To comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information from Social Security records (e.g., to the Government Accountability Office, General Services Administration, National Archives Records Administration, and the Department of Veterans Affairs); 3. To make determinations for eligibility in similar health and income maintenance programs at the Federal, State, and local level; and 4. To facilitate statistical research, audit, or investigative activities necessary to assure the integrity of Social Security programs.~~

~~We may also use the information you provide in computer matching programs. Matching programs compare our records with records kept by other Federal, State, or local government agencies. Information from these matching programs can be used to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federally funded or administered benefit programs and for repayment of payments or delinquent debts under these programs.~~

~~A complete list of routine uses for this information is available in our System of Records Notice entitled, Claims Folder System, 60-0089.
