

CFI GROUP
2014 Individual Filers Survey
Department of Treasury: Internal Revenue Service

Hello, I'm _____ with (NAME), a market research firm, calling on behalf of CFI Group. We would like to ask you about your experiences with the services you received from the Internal Revenue Service. The purpose of the research is to help the IRS improve its services to consumers like you. Your answers will remain anonymous, and your participation is voluntary. You may stop at any time or skip any question you do not wish to answer.

Your opinions are important because you have been chosen randomly to represent consumers across the United States and your responses will be added to a growing IRS database of evaluations of customer satisfaction to improve the products and services provided to you, the consumer.

The authority for requesting the information is 5 USC 301. The primary purpose of collecting this information is to improve IRS customer service. IRS may disclose information to a contractor when authorized by applicable law in order to analyze and administer the survey. Providing the information is voluntary. If you do not provide all or part of the information requested, the IRS will not be able to use information that might have been provided to improve service to you.

This interview is authorized by Office of Management and Budget Control No. 1090-0007 which expires on March 31, 2015. This interview will take approximately 8-10 minutes.

Now, I am going to ask you some questions about electronic filing of your 2013 income tax return to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). These questions apply whether you did this filing yourself or through a practitioner such as a tax preparation service, an accountant, or an attorney...

Q1. Before you used electronic filing, you probably knew something about the IRS electronic filing program in which you can file via a computer or through a tax preparation service or accountant. Now think back and remember your expectations of the overall quality of the electronic filing program. Please give me a rating on a 10-point scale on which "1" means your expectations were "not very high" and "10" means your expectations were "very high."

How would you rate your expectations of the overall quality of the electronic filing program?
