Service records indicate that your qualifying medical service began on:

1. YOU MUST SUBMIT EVIDENCE TO ESTABLISH THAT YOU COMPLETED YOUR QUALIFYING MEDICAL SERVICE WITHIN 120 DAYS AFTER COMPLETING THE REQUIRED SERVICE. Your application for adjustment of status will be considered ready for processing after you submit evidence of the completion of your required medical service. (If you must complete medical service based on a waiver of the foreign residence requirement of section 212(e) of the INA, please submit evidence of this service at this time also.)

2. PROOF OF CONTINUED COMPLIANCE WITH THE MEDICAL SERVICE REQUIREMENT:

You must submit evidence that you are in the process of completing your medical service requirement within 120 days after the second and sixth anniversaries of the date your Form I-140 was approved.

You must submit evidence that you are continuing to perform qualifying medical service prior to _____ and prior to _____.

3. ACCEPTABLE EVIDENCE OF QUALIFYING MEDICAL SERVICE:

- a) Employment documentation such as individual federal income tax returns and W-2 forms for the qualifying period.
- b) Documentation from your employer(s) attesting to the full-time medical service rendered during the required aggregate period, to include the date on which you began the medical service (such documentation to address any breaks in employment other than routine breaks.)
- c) Documentation which demonstrates the establishment of a practice, to include the Articles of Incorporation, business licensure; corporate or other business income tax returns, to include tax withholding documents for the required period.
- d) Any other credible documentation which independently confirms your medical service of the required period.
- e) Evidence which confirms that you have had authorization from U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services for all employment during the required period.
- f) Evidence which shows that your employment occurred in a geographic area that is (or was when the employment began) designated by the HHS as having a shortage of health care professionals.

4. FAILURE TO SUBMIT EVIDENCE OF YOUR CONTINUED MEDICAL SERVICE:

Your application for adjustment of status may be considered for denial if you fail to submit evidence that shows you are in the process of completing your qualifying medical service.

5. EMPLOYMENT AUTHORIZATION RENEWAL:

You may be required to submit evidence to show that you are in the process of completing your qualifying medical service when you submit Form I-765 for renewal of an Employment Authorization Document. If the evidence submitted shows that you are not in the process of completing your qualifying medical service, your Form I-765 may be denied. In addition, your Form I-485 may be considered for denial and your Form I-140
