In computing State and National farm income estimates, prices received for lambs and sheep sold during the past years are required. Please help us by answering the questions below for your 2008 sales. Your assistance is greatly appreciated. Although response to this survey is voluntary and not required by law, your cooperation is very important for accurate lamb and sheep price estimates for New England. Individual reports will be kept strictly confidential.

Please make corrections to name, address and Zip Code, if necessary.
