

Weather and Outdoor Activity Survey

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 10 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other suggestions for reducing this burden to Rob Andrews, NOAA Fisheries Service, 1315 East-West Hwy., Silver Spring, MD 20910.

This is a voluntary survey, and responses are kept confidential as required by section 402(b) of the Magnuson-Stevens Act and NOAA Administrative Order 216-100, Confidentiality of Fisheries Statistics, and will not be released for public use except in aggregate statistical form without identification as to its source. Notwithstanding any other provisions of the law, no person is required to respond to, nor shall any person be subjected to a penalty for failure to comply with, a collection of information subject to the requirements of the Paperwork Reduction Act, unless that collection of information displays a currently valid OMB Control Number.

Commonly Asked Questions

Nobody in my household participates in any of these activities. Should I still respond to the survey?

Yes. It is important that everyone who receives this short questionnaire complete it and return it. For this survey to be scientific, we need basic information about all households selected for the survey – regardless of whether they participate in the activities mentioned in the survey or not.

Who is sponsoring the survey?

This study is being sponsored by the United States Department of Commerce.

How will the information I provide be used?

The Department of Commerce will use the information to help states and federal agencies make decisions about how to manage resources.

How much time will this survey take?

On average, it should take less than ten minutes to complete, including reviewing instructions and answering the questions.

How did you get my address?

Your address was randomly selected from all addresses in your state using scientific sampling. You and your household represent many other households in your part of the State.

Your answers are voluntary.

Please return the completed questionnaire in the prepaid envelope. If you are missing the prepaid envelope please return your completed questionnaire to:
