YOUNG SISTERS INITIATIVE PROGRAM

DEMOGRAPHIC SCREENER

Website Welcome language

Welcome and thank you for visiting the Young Sisters Initiative: A Guide to a Better You Program! The YSI program is targeted to African American young breast cancer survivors to provide you with information and resources to help you during your cancer journey. The YSI program provides you with information on coping with fear of recurrence, fertility, and sexual dysfunction); ways to cope with psychosocial and reproductive health issues; and ways to cope with the side effects of breast cancer treatment.

To access the YSI program information you must register for the site. Please complete the brief screener below as part of an evaluation study before registering for YSI program access. The purpose of the screener is to gather your demographic information (such as age, race, and breast cancer diagnosis) so that we can understand who uses the YSI program. The screener should take you less than 5 minutes to complete. Your answers will be maintained in a secure manner and will only be shared with members of the evaluation team. We will not link your responses to any information that identifies you as an individual. Your responses will be used to shape the content and structure of the YSI program to best meet the needs of African American young breast cancer survivors. Your participation is voluntary. By completing the screener, you are agreeing to participate in the evaluation study. Once you have completed the screener, you will be asked to create a username and password that you can use to access the site at your leisure.

If you are already a registered user, click here (allows users to enter username and password and proceed to the YSI web site).
