

Attachment 8. Additional Consultations Outside the Agency

Michigan Department of Community Health Consultations

Michigan Department of Community Health Biomonitoring of Persistent Toxic Substances in Michigan Urban Fish eaters Advisory Committee Members
Saginaw River AOC Advisory Committee
Name	Title	Organization
Shielda Braddock	Executive Director	First Ward Community Center
Christina Chingman	Registered Nurse	U. S. Department of Veteran's Affairs
Dawn Earnesty	Registered Dietician, Supervisor	Michigan State University Extension
Jackie Doig, J.D.	Senior Staff Attorney	U.S. Center for Civil Justice
Michelle Hurd-Riddick	Registered Nurse, Environmentalist	Lone Tree Council
Chris Izworski	Emergency Management Coordinator, Local angler	Bay County Emergency Management
Archia Jackson	Registered Nurse, President	Black Nurses Association of Saginaw
David Karpovich, Ph.D.	Professor of Chemistry and Department Chair, Local angler	Saginaw Valley University
Joel Strasz	Public Health Clinical Services Manager	Bay County Health Department
Bryant Wilke	Environmental Health Director	Saginaw County Public Health Department
Detroit River AOC Advisory Committee
Name	Title	Organization
Andrzej Borek	Environmentalist	Wayne County Health Department
Mary Dereski, Ph.D.	Associate Professor, Institute of Environmental Health Sciences, Director of Community Outreach & Education	Wayne State University
Kathy McElroy	Environmental Management Unit Chief	Wayne County Health Department
Mike Reed	Manager	Belle Isle Nature Zoo
Mike Schram	Chef, Local angler	Gleaners Community Food Bank of Southeastern Michigan
Charles Stokes	Community Organizer	Detroiters Working for Environmental Justice
Maggie Tufts	Epidemiologist	City of Detroit Department of Health and Wellness Promotion
Gary Williams	4-H Natural Resources Programs Coordinator, Local angler	Michigan State University Extension

Minnesota Department of Health Consultations

Fond du Lac Biomonitoring Advice Council

Fond du Lac Agencies

Wayne Dupuis
Fond du Lac Natural Resources
Fond du Lac Environmental Program
Manager
waynedupuis@fdlrez.com
218-878-7106

Thomas Howes
Fond du Lac Natural Resources
Program Manager
tomhowes@fdlrez.com
218-878-7163

Bonnie LaFromboise, RN, PHN
Fond du Lac Human Services
Public Health Nurse
bonnielafromboise@fdlrez.com
218-878-2132

Nancy Schuldt
Fond du Lac Natural Resources
Water Projects Coordinator
nancyschuldt@fdlrez.com
218-878-7110

Deb Smith, PHN, RN, MSN
Fond du Lac Human Services
Public Health Nurse Director
debsmith@fdlrez.com
218-878-2104

Community Representatives and Tribal Elders

Carol Jaakola
Advice Council Member

Debra Johnson-Fuller
Advice Council Member

Dominic Johnson-Fuller
Advice Council Member

Jeremiah Savage
Advice Council Member

Marlene Shofner
Advice Council Member

Dave Wise
Advice Council Member

Joseph S. Wise
Advice Council Member

Louis Wise
Advice Council Member

Additional Consultants

Meghan Porter, MPH
Maternal and Child Health Epidemiologist
Great Lakes Inter-tribal Epidemiology Center
mporter@glitc.org
612-625-7804

New York State Department of Health Consultations

YEAR	NAME	TITLE	EMAIL/ TELEPHONE	ORGANIZATION	TOPIC	BARRIERS
2011	Michael Bloom, Ph.D.	Assistant Professor of Environmental Health Sciences	mbloom@uamail.albany.edu (518) 473-1821	School of Public Health, University at Albany	Participation Rates	Concern about high participation rate. In NYS Angler Surveys they received 1/3 response of total mailed
2011	Matthew Bonner, Ph.D.	Asst. Professor of Epidemiology	mrbonner@buffalo.edu (716) 829-3434	School of Public Health and Health Professions, University at Buffalo	Participation Rates	Concern about high participation rate. In NYS Angler Surveys they received 1/3 response of total mailed
2011	Scott Zimmerman, , DrPH, MPH	Director, Public Health Laboratories, Epidemiology & Environmental Health	Scott.Zimmerman@erie.gov (716) 858-6966	Erie Co. DOH	Need for project communication w. counties
2011	Katy Brown	Public Health and Environmental Justice Project Manager	kbrown@bnriverkeeper.org (716) 852 - 7483	Buffalo Niagara Riverkeeper	Subsistence Anglers/ Refugees from Burma
2011	Edward Fitzgerald, Ph.D.	Associate Dean for Research and Professor – GL Scientific Advisor	efitzgerald@uamail.albany.edu (518) 402-1062	Dept. Environmental Health Sciences School of Public Health, University at Albany	1. Using non-fish eaters as comparison group 2. PCFs - questionnaire	1. Using a control group would make it more like research 2. PCFs are too ubiquitous
2011	James Devald, P.E.	Director of Environmental Health	james.devald@niagaracounty.com (716) 439-7444	Niagara County Department of Health	General discussion of Advisory Committee
2011	Charlie Knauf	Environmental Health Project Analyst	CKnauf@monroecounty.gov (585) 753-5440	Monroe County Dept. of Public Health	Fish species anglers catch and eat

2011	Katrina Korfmacher, Ph.D.	Assistant Professor of Environmental Medicine	Katrina.Korfmacher@URMC.Rochester.edu (585) 275-3804	Environmental Health Sciences Center University of Rochester School of Medicine and Dentistry	Suggested Respondent Driven Sampling (RDS) of the refugees (giving vouchers for referring high-fish consuming friends)	Although there is a refugee population in Rochester who fish for subsistence, it is much smaller than the large population in Buffalo
2011	John Felsen	Environmental Health Director	jfelsen@monroecounty.gov (585) 753-5564	Monroe County Department of Public Health	General discussion of Advisory Committee
2011	Ralph R. Van Houten	Assistant Regional Director	rrv01@health.state.ny.us (585) 423-8072	NYSDOH	Will Local Health Dept. need to report results back to participants/ helped staff get in touch with Cheryl Brown	Need to follow NYS Public Health Law 576 for Labs reporting results
2011	Cheryl Brown	Refugee Health Program	cdb05@health.state.ny.us (716) 847-4516	NYSDOH	Approach to contact Resettlement Agencies

2010-2011	Robin Lee, Ph.D.	Team Lead, Epidemiologist	RLee3@cdc.gov (770) 488-3811	ATSDR	RDS
2011	Matt Forcucci	Public Health Specialist	mjf13@health.state.ny.us (716) 847-4501	NYSDOH - Buffalo	Popular Fishing Spots/ Defining an area around the AOCs with soil contamination
2011	Douglas Stang	Assistant Director	dxstang@gw.dec.state.ny.us (518) 402-8920	Fish, Wildlife and Marine Resources - DEC	Licensed Anglers Database	Waiting for the MOU
2011	Denise Phillips Beehag	Director of Refugee & Employment Services	www.iibuff.org (716) 883-1900 ext. 319	International Institute of Buffalo	Questions about social connections and networks
2011	Anna Ireland		anna.ireland@jrm-buffalo.org (716) 348-3000	Jericho Road Ministries	Refugee Fishing Spots/ Fish paste/ ethnic group and language information
2011	Chelsea Wagner	Medical Case Manager	cwagner@jersbuffalo.org (716) 882.4963 ex. 217	Journey's End	Communication with refugees

2011	Donald Zelazny	Great Lakes Program Coordinator	DEZelazn@gw.dec.state.ny.us	NYS -DEC	Confirming AOCs boundaries
2011	Jackie Fisher	Environmental Health Coordinator	fisher.jacqueline@epa.gov (312) 353-1481	Great Lakes National Program Office U.S. EPA	Defining AOCs/ fish sampling data/ PAHs found in fish?
2011	Monica Allen	Deputy Director	monica.allen@noaa.gov (301) 427-8028	NOAA Fisheries Public Affairs	What store bought fish are consumed most
2011	Anthony Forti	Research Scientist	Ajf01@health.state.ny.us (518) 402-7800	NYS DOH – Bureau of Toxic Substance Assessment	Fish sampling data and locations
2011	Susan Pinney, Ph.D.	Associate Professor	PINNEYSM@UCMAIL.UC.EDU	Dept of Environmental Health, University of Cincinnati	Most common exposures to PFCs	Most likely primary source would be fish and drinking water – drinking water questions will not be added to questionnaire
2011	Regional Fisheries Managers	Region 7, 8, 9	Fwfish8@gw.dec.state.ny.us (585) 226 - 2466	NYS DEC	What tributaries, creeks that join or flow into AOCs do angler fish?	