

Dear Parent or Guardian:

The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services is conducting an important study of ways to reduce teen pregnancy. The Evaluation of Adolescent Pregnancy Prevention Approaches (PPA) will provide communities like yours with clear information on program effectiveness. We are requesting your permission for your child to participate in the study.

[SCHOOL] is taking part in this study, and students, including your child, are invited to participate. Half of the schools in the study will be randomly selected to take part in an abstinence education program called WAIT Training. In the other half of the schools, students will take part in a class on diet and exercise. Researchers from Mathematica Policy Research, Inc. and Communicate LLC will survey youth from all schools in the study three times over the next few years, beginning in September 2011. These surveys will ask about families, friends, attitudes, knowledge and activities, including sexual activity, drug use and alcohol use. The researchers will also gather information from schools about participants' grades, attendance, and test scores. Your child may also be invited to participate in a focus group.

All information collected in the study will be kept private to the extent possible by law. Your child's name will not be attached to the answers he or she gives, and no unauthorized person will see his or her answers. However, if your child tells us that he or she is going to hurt him or herself or is being hurt by someone else, we will take the necessary steps to ensure his or her safety.

Participation in the study is voluntary. If you agree that your child can participate, your child can still stop participating later. If any questions in the surveys make your child uncomfortable, he or she can refuse to answer those questions.

We hope you agree with us that it is important to learn about effective ways to prevent teen pregnancy through studies like this. Please let us know whether or not you will allow your child to be in the study by completing and signing the attached form and returning it to your child's teacher within a week.

If you have any questions about the program curriculum, please call Sue Morden at 850-668-3700. If you have questions about the PPA study or about your child's participation, please call Melissa Thomas at 1-888-864-6416. Study and program materials are also available for you to review at [SCHOOL].

Sincerely,

Alan Hershey,

Study Director
