HUD's Office for International and Philanthropic Innovation

Electronic Stakeholder Survey: Immediate Follow-Up

Thank you for your recent participation at an IPI event!

Please take a moment to respond to the a few survey questions regarding your experience. We highly value your input and will shape future sessions based on your feedback.

Simply click on this survey link and answer the six brief questions. If you could complete this survey in the next week, it would be much appreciated. Your participation is voluntary and can be submitted anonymously.

HUD's Office for International and Philanthropic Innovation (IPI) works to build new capacity and knowledge within HUD by providing a venue for staff and partners to access the best available evidence, innovations, and lessons from the philanthropic and international sectors.

See our website: www.huduser.org/ipi

We hope you will join us at a future event!

1. Which type of organization do you represent?

- Corporation
- Corporate Foundation
- Independent Foundation
- Community Foundation
- Local Government
- State Government
- Federal Government
- Other (please specify)

2. Please rate the level of your organization's investment of resources (expertise, funding, etc.) in the meeting's focus area:

- No investment
- Some investment
- Significant investment
- Other descriptions, investment levels, and comments:

3. What did you find useful/valuable about the meeting or event?

- Information Sharing
- Dialogue with other sectors
- Dialogue with other stakeholders in my own sector
- Networking
- Planning for future collaboration
- Other (please specify)

4. How useful was the meeting or event for your work?

- Very useful
- Somewhat useful
- Not useful

5. Would you recommend a similar meeting/event to your colleagues?

- I would recommend a similar meeting/event to my colleagues.
- I would not recommend a similar meeting/event to my colleagues.

6. How could we improve future meetings and events to foster sharing, networking, alignment, collaborations, etc.?