Privacy Act Notice

Section 1611(c) of the Social Security Act, and 20 CFR 416.204, authorize us to collect this information. The information you provide us on this form will be used to determine if you continue to be eligible for supplemental security income payments.

Completion of this form is voluntary, however, failure to provide all or part of the information could prevent an accurate and timely decision on your continuing eligibility for benefits.

We rarely use this information you supply for any purpose other than for determining continuing eligibility. However, we may use it for the administration and integrity of Social Security programs. We may also disclose information to another person or to another agency in accordance with approved routine uses, which include but are not limited to the following: 1. To enable a third party or an agency to assist Social Security in establishing rights to Social Security benefits and/or coverage 2. To comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information from Social Security records (e.g., to the Government Accountability Office and Department of Veterans' Affairs); 3. To make determinations for eligibility in similar health and income maintenance programs at the Federal, State, and local level; and 4. To facilitate statistical research, audit, or investigate activities necessary to assure the integrity of Social Security programs.

We may also use the information you provide in computer matching programs. Matching programs compare our records with records kept by other Federal, State, or local government agencies. Information from these matching programs can be used to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federally-funded or administered benefit programs and for repayment of payments or delinquent debts under these programs.

Additional information regarding this form, routine uses of information, and our programs and systems, is available on-line at www.socialsecurity.gov or at your local Social Security office.

Paperwork Reduction Act Statement - This information collection meets the requirements of 44 U.S.C. § 3507, as amended by section 2 of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. You do not need to answer these questions unless we display a valid Office of Management and Budget control number. We estimate that it will take about 20 minutes to read the instructions, gather the facts, and answer the questions. SEND OR BRING THE COMPLETED FORM TO YOUR LOCAL SOCIAL SECURITY OFFICE. To find the nearest office, call 1-800-772-1213 (TTY 1-800-325-0778). Send only comments on our time estimate above to: SSA, 6401 Security Blvd., Baltimore, MD 21235-6401.

Reporting Responsibilities

The amount of your SSI check is based on the information you tell us. To continue getting the right payment amount, you must report certain changes that happen to you. Changes could make your check bigger or smaller.

You must tell us about changes within 10 days after the month they happen. If you do not report changes, we may have to take as much as $25, $50, or $100 out of future checks you receive.

You must also report changes in income for your ineligible spouse or children who live with you, or your sponsor or sponsor's spouse if you are an alien. You must also report if any of these people buy or sell anything of value.

A List of Most of the Changes You Must Report Is On The Next Page .

How To Report Changes

You can report changes in any of the following ways:

- Call us, toll free, at 1-800-772-1213.
- Call your local Social Security Office at the number at the top of this form.
- By mail or in person -- see the address at the top of this form.

Important Facts About Food Stamps

You can apply for food stamps at the Social Security Office if you and everyone in your household get or apply for SSI.

The Social Security Office will help you fill out the food stamp application. You do not have to go to the food stamp office to apply.

CHANGES TO REPORT

WHERE YOU LIVE—You must report to Social Security if:

- You move.
- You (or your spouse) leave your household for a calendar month or longer. For example, you enter a hospital or visit a relative.
- You leave the United States for 30 days or more.
- You are released from a hospital, nursing home, etc.
- You are no longer a legal resident of the United States.

HOW YOU LIVE—You must report to Social Security:

- If someone moves into or out of your household.
- If the amount of money you pay toward household expenses changes.
- If your former spouse dies.
- Births and deaths of any people with whom you live.
- Changes in your marital status:
 - You get married, separated, divorced, or your marriage is annulled.
 - You separate from your spouse or start living together again after a separation.
 - You begin living with someone as husband and wife.
 - Your spouse dies.

INCOME—You must report to Social Security if:

- The amount of money (or checks or any other type of payment) you receive from someone or someplace goes up or down or you start to receive money (or checks or any other type of payment).
- You start work or stop work.
- Your earnings go up or down.
- You become eligible for benefits other than SSI.

Remove the word "clothing."

HELP YOU GET FROM OTHERS—You must report to Social Security if:

- The amount of help (money, food, ~~clothing~~, or payment of household expenses) you receive goes up or down.
- Someone stops helping you.
- Someone starts helping you.

THINGS OF VALUE THAT YOU OWN—You must report to Social Security if:

- The value of your resources goes over $2,000 when you add them all together ($3,000 if you are married and live with your spouse).
- You sell or give any things of value away.
- You buy or are given anything of value.

YOU ARE BLIND OR DISABLED—You must report to Social Security if:

- Your condition improves or your doctor says you can return to work.
- You go to work.

YOU ARE UNMARRIED AND UNDER AGE 22—A report to Social Security must be made if:

- You are under age 18 and live with your parent(s), ask your parents to report if they have a change in income, a change in their marriage, a change in the value of anything they own, or either has a change in residence.
- There are changes in the income, school attendance (if between the ages of 18 and 21), or marital status of ineligible children who live in your household.
- You get married.
- You start or stop school.

YOUR IMMIGRATION AND NATURALIZATION SERVICE (INS) STATUS CHANGES—You must report any changes to Social Security.

YOU ARE A REPRESENTATIVE PAYEE—You must report to Social Security if:

- The person for whom you receive SSI checks has any of the changes listed above. (You may be held liable if you do not report changes that could affect the SSI recipient's payment amount, and he/she is overpaid.)
- You will no longer be able or no longer wish to act as the person's representative payee.

Privacy Act Statement Collection and Use of Personal Information

Section 1611(c) of the Social Security Act, as amended, authorizes us to collect this information. We will use the information you provide to determine your continuing eligibility for supplemental security income payments.

Furnishing us this information is voluntary. However, failing to provide all or part of the information could prevent us from making a timely decision on your request.

We rarely use the information you supply for any purpose other than for determining continued eligibility. However, we may also disclose information to another person or to another agency in accordance with approved routine uses, which include but are not limited to the following:

1. To enable a third party or an agency to assist Social Security in establishing rights to Social Security benefits and/or coverage;
2. To comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information from Social Security records (e.g., to the Government Accountability Office and Department of Veterans Affairs);
3. To make determinations for eligibility in similar health and income maintenance programs at the Federal, State, and local level; and,
4. To facilitate statistical research, audit, or investigative activities necessary to assure the integrity and improvement of Social Security programs (e.g., to the Bureau of Census and to private entities under contract with us).

We may also use the information you provide in computer matching programs. Matching programs compare our records with records kept by other Federal, State, or local government agencies. Information from these matching programs can be used to establish or verify a person's eligibility for federally-funded or administered benefit programs and for repayment of incorrect payments or delinquent debts under these programs.

A complete list of routine uses of the information you gave us is available in our Privacy Act Systems of Records Notices entitled, Claims Folder System, 60-0089. Additional information about this and other systems of records notices and our programs are available from our Internet website at www.socialsecurity.gov or at your local Social Security office.

SSA will insert the following revised PRA Statement into the form at its next scheduled reprinting:
