

2014 ACF Native American Grantee Conference

Customer Satisfaction Survey

The Administration for Children and Families is planning an agency wide conference for its Native American Grantees, to be held in Washington, D.C. The tentative dates are June 17-19, 2014 with June 16 open for the ACF Annual Tribal Consultation session and June 20 open for individual program office meetings.

All ACF program offices will be a part of this conference. Other HHS offices including CMS, CDC, SAMHSA, IHS, HRSA and other Federal Agencies such as Dept. of Justice, Dept. of Interior, BIA and BIE will also participate.

The conference theme is ACF: Honoring Our Commitments to Native Families and Communities Today and Tomorrow. ACF is requesting input on plenary and workshop sessions. Please take a moment to complete the survey below so ACF can plan this conference around topics of interest to you and your community. We look forward to your response and thank you for participating in its planning.

Please respond by DECEMBER 17, 2013.

On the following page, please review the individual "Possible Topics of Interest" and make a selection from the drop-down menu to indicate your interest in each topic. If you are interested in having that topic presented at the conference, please select appropriate "Learning Objective(s)" from the corresponding drop-down boxes. Your selection of Possible Topics of Interest and Learning Objectives will help guide us to better plan the content of the conference sessions. Thank you!
