FDIC CONTRACTOR REPRESENTATIONS AND CERTIFICATIONS

ESTIMATED REPORTING BURDEN

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average one-half hour per response, including the time for reviewing the instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to the Paper Reduction Act Clearance Officer, Legal Division, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, 550 17th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20429; and to the Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project (3064-0072), Washington, D.C. 20503. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

Collection of this information is authorized by the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, 12 U.S.C.) § 1819, 1821, and Executive Order 9397. This information will be primarily used to examine a contractor's compliance with FDIC contracting regulations for potential FDIC contract awards and the information provided may be disclosed to licensing authorities by the FDIC in so examining the contractor's compliance.

Information may also be disclosed to appropriate Federal, state, or local agencies for law enforcement purposes when a violation or possible violation of a civil or criminal law is apparent; to individuals involved in judicial or administrative proceedings; and to a Congressional office in response to an inquiry made at the individual's request. Information may also be disclosed in accordance with the other routine uses set forth in the FDIC's Financial Information System 30-64-0012. Furnishing the requested information, including your Social Security Number, is voluntary. However, failure to furnish all requested information may preclude you from receiving an FDIC contract.

FDIC CONTRACTOR REPRESENTATIONS AND CERTIFICATIONS

The following representations and certifications shall be executed by an official authorized to bind the offeror, and shall be returned with its proposal. These representations and certifications concern matters within the jurisdiction of an agency of the United States, and the making of a false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement may render the maker subject to prosecution under 18 United States Code (U.S.C.) § 1001, 1007, and 1014. For purposes of these representations and certifications, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) is considered an agency of the United States only with respect to its rights and remedies under 18 U.S.C. The offeror shall provide immediate written notice to the Contracting Officer, if, at any time prior to contract award, the offeror learns that one or more of the representations or certifications was erroneous when submitted or has become erroneous by reason of changed circumstances.

1. MINORITY AND WOMEN-OWNED BUSINESS REPRESENTATIONS

a. It is it is not a minority-owned business concern. A minority-owned business concern is defined as a firm in which at least 51% of the ownership and control is directly and unconditionally held by one or more minorities. A firm which is principally owned by another business entity or a trust (including employee stock ownership trusts) that is in turn owned and controlled by one or more minorities does not meet this definition. In the case of a firm which is a corporation, at least 51% of each class of voting stock outstanding and 51% of the aggregate of all stock outstanding must be unconditionally owned by one or more minorities. Additionally, the firm(s) management and daily business operations must be conducted by one or more of the qualifying minority owner(s). The minority individuals must have managerial experience of the extent and complexity needed to run the firm. A minority owner's unexercised right to cause a change in the control of management of the firm does not constitute minority control and management, regardless of how quickly or easily the right could be exercised.

b. If a minority-owned business:

(1) Check the appropriate box below indicating ethnicity.

Hispanic or Latino

Not Hispanic or Latino

(2) Check the appropriate box below indicating racial category.

American Indian/Alaska Native

Black or African American

Asian

Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander

c. It is it is not a women-owned business. A women-owned business is defined as a firm in which at least 51% of the ownership and control is directly or unconditionally held by one or more women. A firm which is principally owned by another business entity or by a trust (including employee stock ownership trusts) that is in turn owned and controlled by one or more women does not meet this definition. In the case of a firm which is a corporation, at least 51% of each class of voting stock outstanding and 51% of the aggregate of all stock outstanding must be unconditionally owned by one or more women. Additionally, the firm(s) management and daily business operations must be conducted by one or more women. The women must have managerial experience of the extent and complexity needed to run the firm. A women owner's unexercised right to cause a change in control or management of the firm does not constitute minority control and management, regardless of how quickly or easily the right could be exercised.
