Privacy Act Notice

The information that you provide will be used by the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) to determine qualifications, suitability and availability for service on advisory boards, bodies, panels, committees or other similar groups. The information will be used to conduct background clearances and/or for annual reports on advisory boards, bodies, panels, committees or other similar groups. The information will be used by and disclosed to employees, contractors, agents, and others authorized by the CFPB to receive this information to assist in related activities. The information may also be disclosed to:

- (1) Appropriate agencies, entities, and persons when: (a) the CFPB suspects or has confirmed that the security or confidentiality of information in the system of records has been compromised; (b) the CFPB has determined that, as a result of the suspected or confirmed compromise, there is a risk of harm to economic or property interests, identity theft or fraud, or harm to the security or integrity of this system or other systems or programs (whether maintained by the CFPB or another agency or entity) that rely upon the compromised information; and (c) the disclosure made to such agencies, entities, and persons is reasonably necessary to assist in connection with the CFPB's efforts to respond to the suspected or confirmed compromise and prevent, minimize, or remedy such harm;
- (2) Another federal or state agency to (a) permit a decision as to access, amendment or correction of records to be made in consultation with or by that agency, or (b) verify the identity of an individual or the accuracy of information submitted by an individual who has requested access to or amendment or correction of records;
- (3) To the Office of the President in response to an inquiry from that office made at the request of the subject of a record or a third party on that person's behalf;
- (4) Congressional offices in response to an inquiry made at the request of the individual to whom the record pertains;
- (5) Contractors, agents, or other authorized individuals performing work on a contract, service, cooperative agreement, job, or other activity on behalf of the CFPB or Federal Government and who have a need to access the information in the performance of their duties or activities;
- (6) The U.S. Department of Justice ("DOJ") for its use in providing legal advice to the CFPB or in representing the CFPB in a proceeding before a court, adjudicative body, or other administrative body before which the CFPB is authorized to appear, where the use of such information by the DOJ is deemed by the CFPB to be relevant and necessary to the litigation, and such proceeding names as a party or interests:
 - (a) The CFPB;
 - (b) Any employee of the CFPB in his or her official capacity;
 - (c) Any employee of the CFPB in his or her individual capacity where DOJ has agreed to represent the employee; or
 - (d) The United States, where the CFPB determines that litigation is likely to affect the CFPB or any of its components;
- (7) A court, magistrate, or administrative tribunal in the course of an administrative proceeding or judicial proceeding, including disclosures to opposing counsel or witnesses (including expert witnesses) in the course of discovery or other pre-hearing exchanges of information, litigation, or settlement negotiations, where relevant or potentially relevant to a proceeding, or in connection with criminal law proceedings; and
- (8) To the public in the form of names, affiliations, and other pertinent biographical information of board or committee members.

The collection of this information is authorized by Pub. L. No. 111-203, Title X, sections 1011, 1012, 1014, codified at 12 U.S.C. §§ 5491, 5492, 5494. You are not required to provide any identifying information, but not doing so may result in non-selection of a prospective advisory board, body, panel, committee or other similar group membership.

According to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, an agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB control number. The valid OMB control number for this collection is 3170-XXXX. It expires on MM/DD/YYYY. The time required to complete this information collection is estimated to average approximately 60 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information.

The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) prohibits discrimination in all its programs and activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, gender, religion, age, political beliefs, sexual orientation, marital or family status, parental status or protected genetic information. (Not all prohibited bases apply to all programs.) Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication of program information (Braille, large print, audiotope, etc.) should contact Liza Strong, Labor and Employee Relations, Office of Human Capital. To file a complaint of discrimination, contact the Treasury Department at 202-622-9252. CFPB is an equal opportunity provider and employer.

I certify that the statements I have made on this form and all attached statements are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge.
