

Appendix A

Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970
Public Law 91-596 (Section 20[a][1])

Public Law 91 - 596
91st Congress, S. 2193
December 29, 1970
As amended by Public Law 101-552,
§3101, November 5, 1990

RESEARCH AND RELATED ACTIVITIES

Section 20.

(a) (1) The Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, after consultation with the Secretary and with other appropriate Federal departments or agencies, shall conduct (directly or by grants or contracts) research, experiments, and demonstrations relating to occupational safety and health, including studies of psychological factors involved, and relating to innovative methods, techniques, and approaches for dealing with occupational safety and health problems.