Screen Shot 3 – Homepage

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the homepage of the International Clinical Research Regulatory Matrix (ICRRM) at <http://clinicalresearchregs.org/>. The page is part of the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases (NIAID) website, under the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services.

Navigation and Tools: The top navigation bar includes links for Home, About NIAID, Regulatory News, Events, Glossary, Key Resources, and Help. A feedback button is also present.

Map and Search: A world map is displayed, color-coded by region: Africa (green), Asia (red), Australia (grey), Europe (purple), North America (blue), and South America (grey). Below the map are links for Africa, Asia, Australia, Europe, North America, South America, and World Map. To the right, a "Comparison Search" section allows users to select two or more countries (Belgium, Germany, Italy, Spain, United States, France, India, South Africa, United Kingdom) and one or more topics, with a "Go" button.

Welcome Message: A dark red banner with the word "Welcome" is positioned above a text block that reads: "Welcome to the International Clinical Research Regulatory Matrix (ICRRM). This database houses regulatory information for several countries across many topic areas. For detailed information on country-specific regulations, please click the country of interest on the map. To view comparisons of regulations by country, select the countries of interest and the topic areas of interest from the lists provided. The ICRRM is currently under development and represents a work in progress. Content from additional countries will be included, and existing content will be refined over time. Please check back for updates.

Key Links - Competent Authorities: A section titled "Key Links - Competent Authorities" features a link for "United States" which points to the "U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA)".

Updates: A section titled "Updates" with a speech bubble icon contains the text: "NEW CONTENT! The follow topics have been added for India:".

The browser's address bar shows the URL <http://clinicalresearchregs.org/> and the page title "Home | National Institute o...". The browser interface includes standard navigation buttons and a search bar.
