RE: Looseleaf Subscriber Satisfaction Survey

Under the generic clearance entitled “Occasional Qualitative Surveys” (3064-0127), the FDIC hereby submits for OMB approval the enclosed Looseleaf Subscriber Satisfaction Survey.

The FDIC Law, Regulations and Related Acts looseleaf service (the “looseleaf”) – is a compilation of banking-related laws, regulations, statutes, and advisory opinions. The FDIC sends out bi-monthly updates to the looseleaf via a subscription service. Subscribers to the looseleaf service include FDIC employees as well as members of the public. The FDIC is currently evaluating the effectiveness of the looseleaf service. Subscriber feedback will be essential to the success of this evaluation process.

Purpose of survey. This survey would provide the FDIC with feedback on the quality of the looseleaf service. With this information, the FDIC to be able to change the looseleaf service as necessary to fit our subscribers’ needs.

Methodology. The Looseleaf Subscriber Satisfaction Survey would be sent by email to the looseleaf service’s approximately 1000 subscribers. Responses would be voluntary.

Burden Estimate

Number of Respondents – 700.
Time per Response – 15 minutes

Total burden = 175 hours
