"Hi. I work with a project that is that funded by The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) to develop a mobile application (app)for HIV testing, a research program focused on HIV prevention. We are doing a research study to learn more about the HIV prevention and testing needs of men who have sex with men. Can I ask you a few questions to see if you are eligible to take part in the study?"

It will only take a minute or two. Some of the questions are personal, including questions about sexual activity. Taking part is up to you. Your responses will be kept private. You can refuse to answer a question or stop at any time. The information you give us will be joined with everybody else's information so that we can describe the group, not individuals, taking part in the study. Are you interested?"

If you are eligible and decide to take part, you will receive $25 for participation in a focus group session.

If eligible:

"You are eligible to take part in the study. There will be a 1.5 hour focus group session and you will receive $25 as a token of appreciation. Are you interested in taking part in the study?"

For those who are ineligible:

"I'm sorry but you are not eligible to take part in this study at this time. There are many possible reasons why people are not eligible to be in the study, reasons that were decided earlier by the researchers. We appreciate your interest in this study and willingness to consider helping to improve HIV prevention programs in our community. Thank you."

For ineligibles, if applicable...

"We do, however, have other studies that you may be eligible to participate in. Would you like me to refer you to those studies?"
