Re: Request for SSA to Correct Records Regarding the Gentlemen: We recently received an inquiry from a former employee containing the enclosed SSA notice. This notice is an error for the following reason:

1. Plan name is incorrect. There is no [redacted]. The plan [redacted] may have been a participant in is the [redacted] Pension Plan. The correct names and numbers are above.

Plan Number 003 was terminated in 1999. Plan Number 007 is in the process of being terminated and may likely be taken over by the PBGC. This mix up in plan names and numbers is therefore troubling to us.

We are puzzled as to how the SSA could have inserted "LLP Floor" in the plan name for plan number 003, yet that appears to be what has happened.

I have attached the IRS determination letter for plan number 007; showing the proper plan name and number. I have also attached the SAR for plan number 003, showing the proper plan name and number.

We suppose that the SSA wants to properly identify plans and plan numbers in its notices to potential beneficiaries. If it decides to attempt to discover how these plan names and numbers became so jumbled and to straighten it out, we hope this information is helpful.

Verv truly ~~yours~~.

Fr: [REDACTED]

Subj: Possible Lost Pension

I started employment with [REDACTED] on 1 Jan 1960. I terminated 12 Apr 1972. I contributed to the retirement plan in place at that time. I worked at [REDACTED] miles West of the town of [REDACTED]. The facility was operated by the [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] was the prime contractor for maintenance and operation of all the systems. It is located adjacent to [REDACTED]. The name was later changed to [REDACTED]. In about 1963 I transferred to the [REDACTED] division that was operated out of [REDACTED]. I did the same kind of operation and maintenance work only it was aboard a ship. I worked on [REDACTED] until I left [REDACTED] in 1972.

[REDACTED] is a subsidiary of [REDACTED]. I have attempted to locate [REDACTED] but have not been able find them. It is hard to imagine they are not around anymore. They had contracts all over the world. At the time I was employed with [REDACTED] their headquarters was in [REDACTED].

I would like to find out if [REDACTED] is still in existence and if so, where they can be reached.

If there is some pension money that I am entitled to, it would sure come in handy for this [REDACTED] year old retired technician.

Thank you,
