OMB Clearance No.: 1850-0729

Expiration Date: 07/31/2014

Welcome to the Baccalaureate and Beyond Longitudinal Study Website!

Beginning in summer 2012, the Baccalaureate and Beyond Longitudinal Study (B&B) will survey more than 17,000 bachelor's degree recipients from approximately 1,000 U.S. colleges and universities to better understand the experience of graduates one year after earning a bachelor's degree. The survey collects information about respondents' experiences in the workforce; experiences in and plans for graduate school; earnings and expenses; family status; participation in civic activities and personal and professional goals. Data collected from B&B will help educators, researchers and policymakers at the local, state and national levels better understand the experiences of recent college graduates and what can be done to help them.

The B&B survey is now closed. Check back in June 2012.

Thank you for your participation!

You can obtain additional information about the B&B study by using the links at the left side of this page. If you need additional assistance, send an e-mail to bbemail@rti.org or call the Help Desk toll-free at 1-877-262-4440.

According to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, no persons are required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB control number. The valid OMB control number for this voluntary information collection is 1850-0729. The time required to complete this information collection is estimated to average 35 minutes per response, including the time to review instructions, gather the data needed and complete and review the information collection. If you have any comments concerning the accuracy of the time estimate or suggestions for improving this survey, please write to: U.S. Department of Education, Washington, DC 20202-4537. If you have any comments or concerns regarding the status of your individual submission of this survey, write directly to: The 2008-12 Baccalaureate and Beyond Longitudinal Study (B&B:08/12), National Center for Education Statistics, 1990 K Street, NW, Washington, DC 20006.

Table 1 - Summary of interview revisions

Section	Form Name	Construct	Revision
Eligibility	B12AHCOMP	Household composition	The "other" response option was updated to "other (e.g., roommate)".
Postbaccalaureate Education	B12CPSTGRD	Postbaccalaureate attendance	Revised wording to include professional degrees ("graduate degree" changed to "professional or graduate degree"). Changed "professional certificate" to "professional certification."
	B12CFINAIDG01	Postbaccalaureate financial aid	This form name has been revised. It was previously B12CFINAID01. Changed question wording from "Which of the following sources did you use to pay for your education expenses (such as tuition, fees, and books) and living expenses for your [DEGREE] at [SCHOOL]?" Added response options for "Both education and living expenses" and "Neither." Added item for "Federal Work Study."
	B12CAIDE01	Postbaccalaureate financial aid	This form name has been revised. It was previously B12CAIDEX301. Revised question wording to specify that "educational costs" included both "education and living expenses." Switched the order of the response options, "Other aid" and "Own money" to match question wording.
	B12CNUMAPP01, B12CNUMACC01	Postbaccalaureate admissions	Changed the focus of questions to ask about number of total applications submitted instead of number of schools applied to. Cognitive testing revealed that respondents could have applied to the same school more than once now that we're covering multiple years.
	B12CACCASCH01	Postbaccalaureate admissions	This is form was needed because of revision to B12CNUMAPP01.
	B12CONLINE, B12CONPROG, B12CNIWKND, B12CNWPROG	Alternative postbaccalaureate course modes	These forms replaced B12CALTAGE and B12CALTCRS in collecting information about alternative modes of course instruction.

Section	Form Name	Construct	Revision
	B12CALTPLN, B12CALTINC	Alternate postbaccalaureate enrollment/employment plans	These forms were taken out of the Post-BA school loop (loop names were B12CALTPLN01 and B12CALTINC01). On B12CALTPLN, the response option “still attended school at a different program” was changed to “enrolled in a different program.” Also, “done something else” was added.
	B12CLICFLT	License/certification	Moved into Post-BA section
	B12CLICOBT	License/certification	Moved into Post-BA section, Combined Professional Association and Industry
	B12CRSCWK	Postbaccalaureate non-degree coursework	Added response options for “needed for long-term educational goals” and “needed for prerequisite requirements”
	B12CLNINTRO	Undergraduate and Postbaccalaureate education loan debt	Clarified “education” in question wording with “undergraduate or graduate education”
	B12CUGLN, B12CLNTYP	Undergraduate education loan debt	These were added to collect undergraduate loan information for B&B:09 nonrespondents.
	B12CELNSTAT	Undergraduate and Postbaccalaureate education loan debt	This form replaced B12CELNRPY. This form was added from field test to help with routing respondents with federal loans. Added checkbox “Check here if you did not have federal student loans” and revised response options.
	B12CPRIVSTAT	Undergraduate and Postbaccalaureate education loan debt	Added back the response option for “temporarily deferring payment because of grace period, deferment, forbearance, or some other arrangement. This includes paying interest only” based on cognitive testing findings.
	B12CEFUT	Future postbaccalaureate enrollment	Scale changed from visual analog scale (“slider”) to four-point radio button. Revised question wording based on scale change.
	B12CFACS	Future	Added transition sentence to question wording.

Section	Form Name	Construct	Revision
		postbaccalaureate enrollment
Postbaccalaureate Employment	B12DEMPINT	Employment history	This form was removed due to redundant introductory information.
	B12DEMPLOY01	Employment history	Removed the employer start and end dates (and current employment checkbox) because we are now collecting this information in a new form, B12DWKMON01. Additionally, we modified the wording to instruct respondents to enter employment information by employer rather than by job. We are no longer asking them to enter different periods of employment separately.
	B12DWKMON01	Employment history	This is a new form. Previously employment dates were collected via dropdown boxes for the start and end dates. By collecting the dates through a calendar system, we are able to collect month-level detail when the respondent was employed with that particular employer. The inclusion of a "check/uncheck" button allows respondents to easily select or unselect each month for a given year which minimizes burden.
	B12DEMPCUR01	Employment history	This item was previously on B12DEMPLOY01, but has been moved to its own form.
	B12DEMPBRK01	Employment history	This is a new form.
	B12DEMPLOY201	Employment history	Item wording was revised to allow for more clarity and ease of administration for telephone interviewers.
	B12DNSFA01	Job requirements	Based on cognitive testing results, we split B12DNSF18B01 to provide a gate. This form acts as the gate and asks if their job required a BA or higher, and if yes, then we'll ask whether it was required in a specific field.

Section	Form Name	Construct	Revision
	B12DNSF18B01	Job requirements	This form has been modified. We added a gate asking if their job required a BA or higher (B12DNSFA01). This item now lists 4 possible areas for their degree (STEM fields, Social sciences, other specified field, or unspecified field).
	B12DCHNG01	Job change	The response options for this form have been modified. They are now grouped under three headings: Job-related reasons - Voluntary, Job-related reasons - Involuntary, and Personal reasons.
	B12DSINGLE01	Job change	The response options for this form have been modified in conjunction with B12DCHNG01.
	B12DINDCD01	Job characteristics	The industry coder has been split into 2 forms. The text string for the employer's industry will now only be asked as a follow-up only if the coder is left blank or the "none of the above" option is selected.
	B12DINDTX01	Job characteristics	This form now contains only the text string for the industry coder. This was previously included on B12DINDCD01.
	B12DBEN01	Job characteristics	Revised the response options.
	B12DWHY01	Job characteristics	Revised the response options.
	B12DDIFHIRO1	Job search	This form was no longer needed because the information could be derived from other variables.
	B12DJBSET01	Job characteristics	This form was added based on results of cognitive testing. The question about commute time was not universally applicable.
	B12DJSAT01	Job satisfaction	This form name has been revised. It was previously B12DX3JSAT01.
	B12DSPS01	Job support	This form name has been revised. It was

Section	Form Name	Construct	Revision
			previously B12DX3SPS01.
	B12DNW01	Periods of unemployment	This form was previously named B12DEMPLOY401. The response options have also been revised.
	B12DEMPOTH	Periods of unemployment	Revised the wording to include internships.
Teaching	B12EINTRO	Teaching introduction	Revised introductory wording for individuals not previously identified as teachers. (Added, “One of the goals of this study is to learn about recent college graduates’ interest in the teaching profession – even among graduates who did not major in an education field. “)
	B12EPREPAR	Teacher preparation	Added note to only include formal preparations. (“Please only include formal preparations, such as taking courses to complete an education degree, taking a certification exam, or completing a student teaching assignment.”)
	B12ETCHTHNK	Teaching interest	Removed “Other agencies” from response options.
	B12ECRTTYP	Teaching certification	Revised response options for clarity based on cognitive testing.
	B12ECRTFLD	Teaching certification	“Secondary education” changed to “General education in middle or secondary grades”
	B12EJBTP01	Teaching position loop	Revised response options based on cognitive testing.
	B12EJBFD01	Teaching field	“Secondary education” changed to “General education in middle or secondary grades”
	B12EJBSC01	Teaching location	Condensed response options.
	B12EMOVE	Other education positions	Scale changed from visual analog scale (“slider”) to four-point radio button. Revised question wording based on scale change.
Student Background	B12FDEP2	Dependents	This form was added to ask the number of dependent children the respondent was responsible for.

Section	Form Name	Construct	Revision
	B12FDEPDAT	Dependents	The form was added to allow respondent to indicate if their dependent child became financially dependent on them on a date other than their date of birth.
	B12FOTDEP	Other dependents	This form was updated to only collect the date the respondent began financially supporting other dependents. It no longer collects the type of other dependent.
	B12FRETIR	Retirement accounts	The checkbox response option for the items on this question became a Yes/No/Don't know grid.

Indicate the degree or certificate you were working on during your last term of enrollment at [NPSAS] in the 2007-08 school year (July 1, 2007 - June 30, 2008). Establishing the type of degree program in which you were enrolled helps determine what questions you will be asked throughout the interview.

An associate's degree (AA, AS, AAS, AGE, etc.) normally requires at least 2, but less than 4 years, of full-time equivalent college work.

A bachelor's degree is awarded by a 4-year college or university and usually requires at least 4 years of full-time, college-level work.

A master's degree (MA, MS, MBA, MFA, etc.) usually requires at least 2 years of full-time graduate-level work and may require a thesis or a practicum. For the purposes of this study, Education Specialist degrees (EdS) are considered master's degrees.

A research/scholarship doctoral degree (PhD, EdD, etc.) usually requires at least 4 years of full-time graduate-level work and usually requires a dissertation.

A professional doctoral degree is a formal award certifying the satisfactory completion of a postsecondary education program in the following areas: chiropractic, dentistry, law, medicine, optometry, osteopathic medicine, pharmacy, podiatry, ministry or divinity, or veterinary medicine.

An undergraduate certificate or diploma is a formal award certifying the satisfactory completion of a postsecondary education program. Undergraduate certificates and diplomas are designed to equip people with the skills needed for direct entry to employment, and for progression to higher education or training. Examples include undergraduate certificates in administrative support, computer programming, and medical records.

A post-baccalaureate certificate provides students who already hold a bachelor's degree with new or additional training in an area of specialization. Certificates typically require fewer course hours than do master's or doctoral degrees, and do not require a thesis or dissertation. Examples of this include certificates in accounting, computer science, and human resource management.

A post-master's certificate usually requires completion of 24 semester credit hours beyond the master's degree but does not meet the requirements of academic degrees at the doctoral level.

An undergraduate (non-degree/non-matriculated) student not enrolled in a degree program is taking courses but is not formally enrolled in a degree or certificate program of any sort.

A graduate (non-degree/non-matriculated) student not enrolled in a degree program is a non-degree-seeking or non-matriculated student enrolled in graduate-level courses beyond a bachelor's degree.

If you were working on multiple (more than one) degrees or certificates during your last term of enrollment at [NPSAS] in the 2007-08 school year or you earned one degree and began another degree within that same school year, please select all categories that describe your enrollment.

Indicate "yes" if you have attended a college, university, or trade school for any degree or certificate after completing your bachelor's degree requirements at [NPSAS]. This education may include other undergraduate degrees or certificates, or graduate-level degrees or certificates. Indicate "no" if you attended school for coursework that is not part of a degree or certificate program. Do not include professional certificates such as those earned through a week-long training course. You will have a chance to tell us about training leading to certification later in the interview.

The list below provides definitions of possible additional degrees or certificates:

Degrees: An associate's degree normally requires at least 2, but less than 4 years, of full-time equivalent college work.

A bachelor's degree is usually awarded by a 4-year college or university and usually requires at least 4 years of full-time, college-level work.

A master's degree usually requires at least 2 years of full-time graduate-level work and may require a thesis or a practicum.

A doctoral degree-research/scholarship is a Ph.D. or other doctor's degree that requires advanced work beyond the master's level, including the preparation and defense of a dissertation based on original research, or the planning and execution of an original project demonstrating substantial artistic or scholarly achievement. Some examples of this type of degree may include Ed.D., D.M.A., D.B.A., D.Sc., D.A., or D.M., and others, as designated by the awarding institution.

A doctoral degree-professional practice is a doctor's degree that is conferred upon completion of a program providing the knowledge and skills for the recognition, credential, or license required for professional practice. The degree is awarded after a period of study such that the total time to the degree, including both pre-professional and professional preparation, equals at least six full-time equivalent academic years. Some of these degrees include: chiropractic (D.C., or D.C.M.); dentistry (D.D.S. or D.M.D.); law (L.L.B. or J.D.); medicine (M.D.); optometry (O.D.), osteopathic medicine (D.O.); pharmacy (Pharm.D.); podiatry (D.P.M., Pod.D., D.P.); or veterinary medicine (D.V.M.), and others, as designated by the awarding institution.

A doctoral degree-other is a doctor's degree that does not meet the definition of a doctor's degree-research/scholarship or a doctor's degree-professional practice.

Certificates and Diplomas: Undergraduate certificates or diplomas, including those leading to a license are usually designed to equip people with the skills needed for direct entry to employment or to earn a license such as a cosmetology license. Other examples include certificates in administrative support, computer programming, and medical records.

A post-baccalaureate certificate provides students who already hold a bachelor's degree with new or additional training in an area of specialization. Certificates typically require fewer course hours than do master's or doctoral degrees, and do not require a thesis or dissertation. Examples of this include certificates in accounting, computer science, and human resource management.

A post-master's certificate usually requires completion of 24 semester credit hours beyond the master's degree but does not meet the requirements of academic degrees at the doctoral level.

Help Text

Indicate the type of financial aid you have received to help pay for your education expenses and living expenses.

Education expenses include tuition, fees, and books. Additionally, any costs associated with your education such as a computer are considered education expenses. Living expenses include rent, food, and clothing. Additionally, expenses such as transportation and utilities are considered living expenses.

The list below provides examples of types of aid:

Examples of federal student loans include Stafford, FFEL, Direct, and Perkins loans.

Alternative or private student loans tend to cost more in terms of the interest that must be repaid than do the loans offered by the Federal government. Unlike federal student loans, private loans are credit based and therefore often require a cosigner if the student does not have an established credit history.

Grants or scholarships do not have to be repaid. Most scholarships are restricted to paying all or part of tuition expenses, though some also cover room and board.

Graduate assistantships are a form of financial aid awarded to students to help support their education. Examples include teaching assistantships and research assistantships. Students usually receive a waiver for all or part of their tuition and a stipend to assist with other living expenses, and are required to perform teaching or research duties.

Fellowships are based on merit, rather than just need. Payment usually includes a waiver for educational expenses as well as a stipend. Fellowships do not have to be repaid.

Federal work-study jobs are offered to students with financial need, allowing them to work part-time to earn money to help pay their education expenses. Students must file a FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) in order to be considered for the Federal Work-Study (FWS) program. Work-study jobs are often located on the campus of a student's school and may or may not be related to a student's course of study.

Employer assistance is any monetary assistance that your employer contributes towards your educational costs.

Own money refers to the student's own finances, and excludes parents' money.

Private loans, also known as alternative loans, are offered by private lenders. There are no federal application forms to complete. Some students and parents use private loans as a supplement when their federal loans do not provide enough money or when they need more flexible repayment options.

Private loans can have higher interest rates than federal loans. Unlike federal student loans, private loans are credit based and therefore often require a cosigner if the student does not have an established credit history.

Student loans that are neither federal nor private (or alternative) fall under the "other types of loan" category. These may include loans from charitable groups, labor unions, churches, private individuals, or families.

Consider the type of business or commercial sector in which you are employed. This is called your "industry." For example, if you are a teacher, your industry is "education." When considering an industry, keep in mind that industry describes your employer's business. Another example: If you are a cook in a school's kitchen (and you are employed by the school), your industry is "education" because your employer's primary business is education.

Then, select the best category to describe the industry in which you work from the options provided.

Descriptions of each industry are presented beside the list of industries.

Benefits are a type of non-monetary employee compensation provided in addition to salary. Indicate "yes" for each benefit your employer offered, regardless of whether or not you used the benefit.

Retirement benefits are funds that you, your employer, or both can set aside to invest while you are working. In defined benefit plans (sometimes called pension plans), at the time of retirement, employees are provided a set amount based on salary or years of service. In defined contribution plans like a 401(k)/403(b), both employee and employer contribute specific amounts but the benefit available upon retirement is tied to investment earnings.

Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) entitles eligible employees to take unpaid, job-secured leave for family and medical reasons for up to 26 weeks during a single 12-month period. Employees are eligible if they have worked for a covered employer for at least one year and if at least 50 employees are employed by the employer.

Job-secured family leave in addition to or instead of FMLA refers to family leave beyond the 12 weeks covered by FMLA or for employees who are not eligible to for FMLA (see above for eligibility requirements). This leave can either be paid or unpaid and ensures that your job will remain.

Tuition reimbursement is any assistance that your employer contributes towards your educational costs.

Other benefits not listed can include (but are not limited to): gym memberships, public transportation subsidies, stock options, discounts on products, etc. Please do not include employee perquisites (or perqs) which are provided to employees based on performance or seniority. Examples of employee perqs include (but are not limited to): cash bonuses, telecommuting, company car, etc. Please do not include travel reimbursements such as mileage or food per diem.

An itinerant teacher refers to a teacher who holds one position or assignment, but who teaches in multiple schools.

Examples of positions include literacy coaches, math coaches, teachers on special assignment with professional development responsibilities, etc.

A teacher's aide refers to a certified or non-certified assistant who aids the teacher in preparing classroom materials for instruction and may help with grading and special projects. He/she does NOT assume full responsibility for classroom instruction.

A long-term substitute teacher refers to a certified or non-certified teacher who works as a replacement for a regular teacher when he/she takes a leave of absence for a long-term period of time (more than twelve weeks). This type of substitute teaches in place of the regular teacher for at least 12 weeks consecutively.

Indicate the fields in which you are certified to teach. Choose all that apply.

A license or certificate for a particular field is issued when a teacher has successfully completed a list of requirements which may include but is not limited to successful completion of coursework, exams, and/or a certain number of teaching hours (student teaching).

Most middle, junior high, or high school teachers teach specific subjects and, therefore, should indicate the specific subjects in which they are certified. Use "general education in middle or secondary grades" only to indicate certification in general education (i.e., being certified to teach a wide variety of subjects to a single group of students during the day) at the middle grades or secondary level.

Only indicate "other" if your field does not fit into one of the pre-specified fields.

A student teaching assignment is an assignment where a student is assigned to assist regular K-12 classroom teacher(s) in classroom duties and is mentored by that teacher, as part of a degree or certification program.

A teacher practicum often has the same responsibilities as a student teaching assignment and fulfills the same requirements for certification programs as a student teaching assignment; however, teacher practicum courses are often part of a degree program outside of the education department.

If you have completed a student teaching assignment or a teaching practicum, indicate "Yes." If you have not fully completed a student teaching assignment or a teaching practicum, indicate "No."

In the next set of items, we'd like to ask you about all K-12 teaching positions you have held since [{"if B&B:08/09 RESPONDENT"} you were last interviewed in [B&B:08/09 interview month] {"else if BA completion date available"} completing your bachelor's degree requirements in [BA completion month] {"else"} completing your bachelor's degree requirements in the 2007-08 school year (July 1, 2007 – June 30, 2008)]. In this section, your number of teaching positions is based on the number of teaching roles in which you have served and number of the schools at which you have worked. For example, someone who has worked as a regular classroom teacher at two different schools would report two teaching positions. Someone who has worked as a student teacher and a regular classroom teacher at the same school would also report two teaching positions.

A regular classroom teacher (full- or part-time) refers to a teacher who is a regular classroom teacher in any grade level from kindergarten to twelfth grade.

A short-term substitute teacher refers to a certified or non-certified teacher who works as a replacement for a regular teacher when he/she takes a leave of absence for a short-term period of time (up to 12 weeks). He/she may substitute for a regular teacher for as short a period as a day or for a week at a time.

A long-term substitute teacher refers to a certified or non-certified teacher who works as a replacement for a regular teacher when he/she takes a leave of absence for a long-term period of time (more than 12 weeks). This type of substitute teaches in place of the regular teacher for more than 12 weeks consecutively.

A teacher's aide refers to a certified or non-certified assistant who aids the teacher in preparing classroom materials for instruction and may help with grading and special projects. He/she does NOT assume full responsibility for classroom instruction.

A support teacher works largely with other teachers, rather than with students, and often designs or conducts professional development activities for others. Examples of activities include developing curricula, supporting other teachers' use of technology for instruction, analyzing achievement data and helping teachers understand or use those data to improve instruction, or coaching in particular subject areas or instructional methods. Examples of positions include literacy coaches, math coaches, teachers on special assignment with professional development responsibilities, etc.

A student teacher refers to a teacher who is shadowing a teacher and taking on various roles in the classroom. While some teaching may be involved, this type of teacher does not primarily teach students.

An itinerant teacher refers to a teacher who holds one position or assignment, but who teaches in multiple schools.

If you consider yourself to be a teacher at the K-12 level but none of the types of teachers indicated reflects your teaching position, respond "Other teaching position."

Indicate "yes" for each benefit your employer offered, regardless of whether or not you used the benefit.

Retirement benefits are funds that you, your employer, or both can set aside to invest while you are working. In defined benefit plans (sometimes called pension plans), at the time of retirement, employees are provided a set amount based on salary or years of service. In defined contribution plans like a 401(k)/403(b), both employee and employer contribute specific amounts but the benefit available upon retirement is tied to investment earnings.

Tuition reimbursement is any monetary assistance that your employer contributes towards your educational costs.

Unpaid family leave provides employees with up to 12 weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave per year for the same reasons as paid family leave.

Paid family leave refers to support for employees who must take time off to care for a seriously ill family member or for a newly born child.

Help Text

Indicate the subject areas taught in the teaching position referenced in the question. Choose all that apply.

Most middle, junior high, or high school teachers teach specific subjects and, therefore, should indicate the specific subjects they teach/taught. Use "general education in middle or secondary grades" only to indicate teaching in general education (i.e., teaching a wide variety of subjects to a single group of students during the day) at the middle grades or secondary level.

Only indicate "other" if you teach in a subject area that does not fit into one of the pre-specified fields.

Internship programs allow individuals to complete their teacher preparation coursework concurrent with their first year or two in a paid teaching position. These programs are led by colleges, universities and by school districts and county offices of education. To qualify for an internship program, an individual must possess a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited college or university, satisfy the basic skills requirement, meet the subject matter competence and US Constitution requirement, and obtain character and identification clearance. The program provides teacher preparation coursework and an organized system of support from college and district faculty. Completion of an internship program results in the same credential as is earned through a traditional teacher preparation program.

If you participated in a teacher internship program prior to beginning your first job, please indicate "no."

Please indicate whether you have any of the following types of retirement accounts.

An IRA is an individual retirement account (IRA) that allows individuals to direct pretax income, up to specific annual limits, toward investments that can grow tax-deferred (no capital gains or dividend income is taxed). Contributions to the traditional IRA may be tax-deductible depending on the taxpayer's income, tax-filing status and other factors. There are several variations of an IRA, including: the Roth IRA, Simple IRA and SEP IRA.

A 401(k) is a qualified plan established by employers to which eligible employees may make salary deferral (salary reduction) contributions on a post-tax and/or pretax basis. Employers offering a 401(k) plan may make matching or non-elective contributions to the plan on behalf of eligible employees and may also add a profit-sharing feature to the plan.

A 403(b) is a retirement plan for certain employees of public schools, tax-exempt organizations and certain ministers. The features of a 403(b) plan are very similar to those of a 401(k) plan.

A Pension is a retirement plan provided by an employer that provides the employee with an income when they are no longer earning a regular income from their employment. U.S. government Social Security is not considered a Pension.

An other retirement savings account includes an employer based retirement account not listed above.
