

This economic census collection was cleared in a previous year but does not impose burden until FY 2013. It was originally cleared for just 1 burden hour as a place holder. This action will increase the burden to its actual level. This burden was fully accounted for in the original clearance request.